On the Campus

The first thing to attract the eye of a student or visitor at Denison is our singularly beautiful campus. Within this beauty the friendliness and spirit of both faculty and students has yielded a strong well-balanced academic and extra-curricular program.

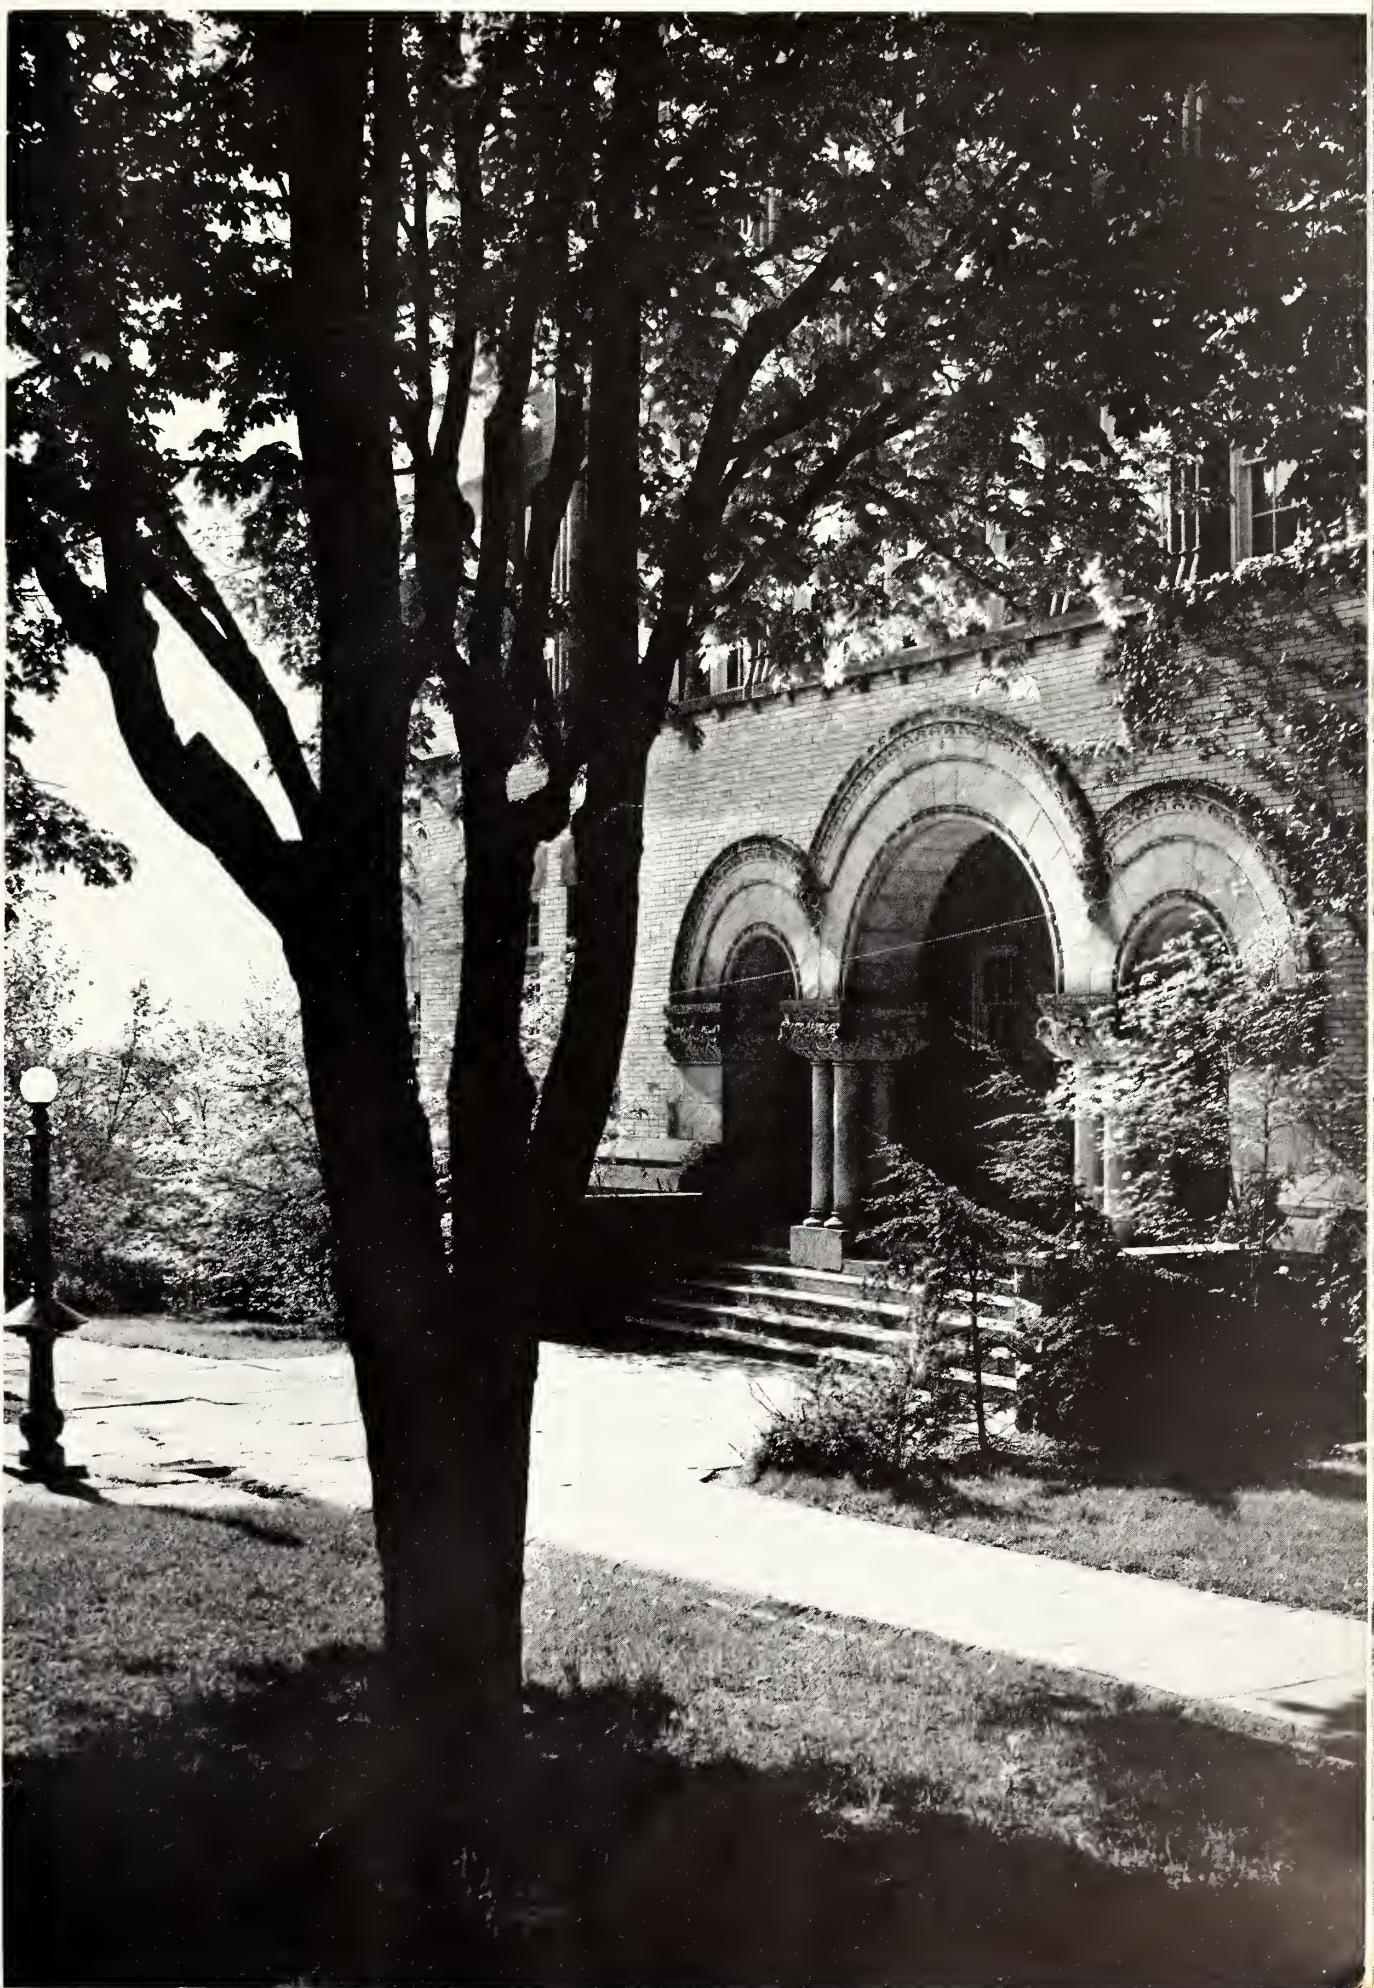

Beauty of Nature and Reverence . . .

Beauty of Sound Learning . . .

Denison's Acting President

It is with deep and sincere thanks that we acknowledge the wonderful job Dean Cyril F. Richards has done in his position of Acting President of Denison. We were well acquainted with his good work as Dean of the College in previous years. During this difficult year of readjustment, both Dean and Mrs. Richards have displayed great interest in every campus activity, leaving a lasting memory with each one of us. We are highly indebted to their loyalty and service to Denison.

Situated on the top of college hill and commanding a view of the beautiful Licking Hills, is the President's Home. The scenic landscaping and the atmosphere of comfort given by the big Southern-type house are only indicative of the hospitality and friendliness which are found within.

DOROTHY V. N. BROOKS
A.B., A.M., D.Ed.

Dean of Women

Dean Brooks has encouraged women students to drop into her home or office at any time. Always anxious to help with the solution of any problem, Mrs. Brooks is admired for her good judgement and constructive leadership. We recognize her as one of the more liberal college deans in America.

FRANCIS C. BAYLEY
A.B., B.D., Ph.D.

Dean of Men

By his thoughtful guidance and personal concern for each male student, Dean Bayley has again proven himself an able leader and a true friend to the men on campus. He has won the respect and admiration of all those with whom he has dealt.

School Life . . .

Although every day is a big day at Denison, there are certain important events which highlight the year. Eagerly awaited are the all-school activities of Homecoming, D-Day, Dad's Day week-end, and May Day. In addition, there are the formals, the novelty parties, the theatre productions and the song contests. Finally there are the little things—the picnics, the tobogganning, the swimming and the casual dates which will be the memories we will cherish throughout our lives.

The Adytum Queen of 1951

In selecting this year's judge for the Adytum Queen of 1951, we sought to find an expert on beauty. With this in mind we asked Mr. George Samerjan, Executive Art Director, Esquire, Inc., to choose our queen in the name of Esquire Magazine.

His choice is Miss Louise Morrison, lovely blond, green-eyed freshman of Ashtabula, Ohio.

Evenings To Remember

Many a week-end night during the year, the Denison campus is ablaze with parties and dances which add so much to campus social life, and which are eagerly looked forward to all year.

Typical of these big events are the Sig Derby, at which the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi and her court are announced, a banquet before one of the big formals or the Junior Prom, the big all-school formal presented by the junior class, which is climaxed by the crowning of the Junior Prom Queen.

But any night you will find the uphill dorms lighted until all the evening's experiences have been re-told and shared with the other girls in the suites.

Homecoming

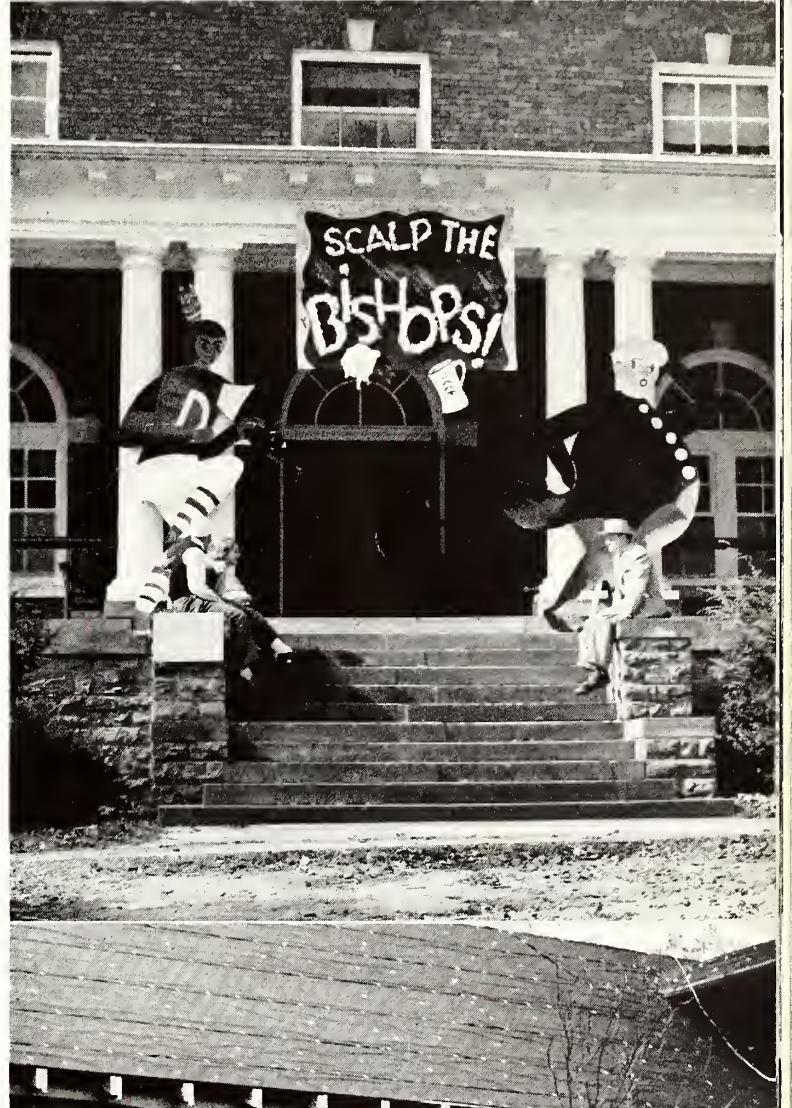

There are many events also which are of interest not only to the students, but to faculty, friends and alumni as well. Outstanding among these is Homecoming, planned by the students and designed to re-activate an interest in Denison in those who have attended our school.

During Homecoming the campus is filled with festive decorations which add to the activities. Town and campus alike are decked out, especially the Drag which connects Granville and Denison. A novelty feature of Homecoming this year was the hilarious but slightly odorous King Krumb contest.

Special stress is placed on getting the town people to enter into the spirit of Homecoming. Their fine co-operation in decorating and their support of the parade and the game makes Homecoming a Granville occasion rather than just a Denison occasion.

At Homecoming spirit and competition run high as the sororities, fraternities and dormitories jealously guard the plans for their respective floats and house decorations.

Days of planning, painting, and praying for good weather precede the parade. The climax of the weekend comes with the big Homecoming game at Deeds Field. At the game the Homecoming Queen is presented and she reigns over the game and the festivities. Also at the game the winners of the float and house decorations are announced. This year the coveted first place prize went to the Kappa Sigs for the best float and to the Kappas for the best house decorations.

D-Day

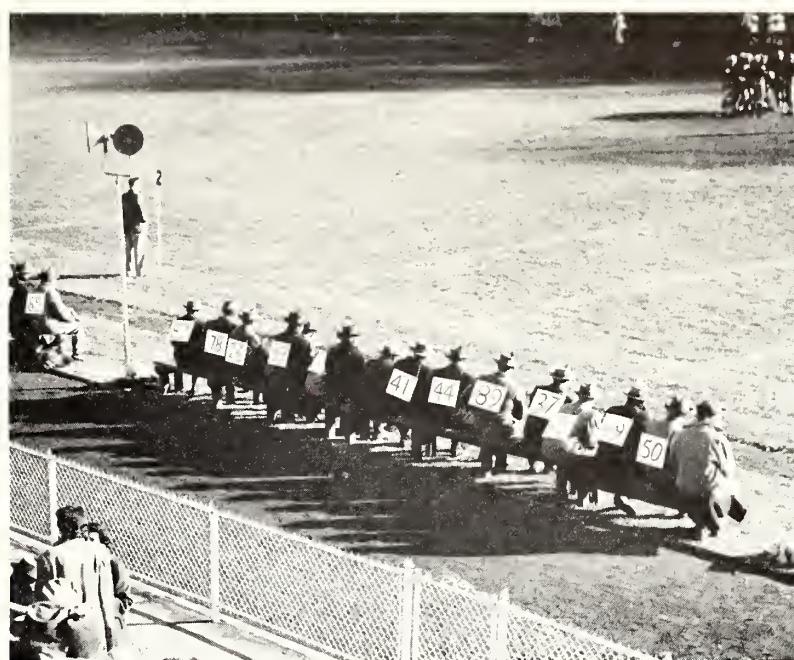

If talk and speculation were any indication of a day's popularity, D-Day would take first place in any popularity poll.

Our all-school holiday which comes once each semester is a day of relaxation and fun for students, faculty and administration alike. Part of the activities this year included our participation in the world-wide ringing of the Liberty Bell.

Then there was the usual all-school picnic; and, of course, what D-Day would be complete without the annual tug of war between the freshmen and the sophomores which inevitably ends up in a brawl with all the participants getting a good dousing in fragrant Ebaugh's Pond.

Two of our other big week-ends which highlight the year are Dad's Day week-end and May Day week-end, honoring Denison mothers.

Days To Remember

Scheduled along with the luncheons, dinners and concerts, the big feature of Dad's Day is the football game on Saturday afternoon at which the dads of the players are honored by watching the game from the player's bench while they wear their son's numbers.

In the midst of the blooming Dogwood and all the beauty of a Granville spring, Denison celebrates Mother's Day. Here again there is one event which holds precedent over the other planned activities. This is the crowning of the May Queen, which includes the jesters, the singing and dancing, Friar Tuck, the reading of the proclamation, the processional of the attendants, and climaxed by the crowning of the Queen.

Bonds of Friendship

Each year one week is set aside for the Bonds of Friendship program. During this week money is raised for international projects and it represents Denison's desire to share in the life of the world.

Dr. Kenneth I. Brown, Director of the Danforth Foundation and past president of Denison, gave the initial chapel speech to open the week's activities, and Winnie Webb and Joe Keaney served as co-chairmen of the drive.

In addition to Bonds of Friendship pledges and the faculty services auctioned to raise money, the program this year included a variety show featuring sorority and fraternity skits. The Thetas were awarded the first place trophy for their fine performance.

Christian Emphasis Week

Each year, too, one week is set aside as Christian Emphasis Week. These five days are devoted to Christian thought and meditation.

In addition to the daily chapel programs, there are Bible study classes, round table discussions and informal sessions in the sorority and fraternity houses and dormitories dealing with Christianity in all phases of modern life.

All actions connected with the functioning of the week are planned by the Committee of 100, which was headed this year by Florence Borgmann and Dave Hart. The principal speaker for this year's Christian Emphasis program was Dr. Liston Pope of Yale.

Off Campus . . .

Striving to increase her outside interests and activities and to improve her on-campus relations, the Denison student body has developed an extensive program to further this aim.

Among these interests were Denison's participation in the four-school Intercollegiate Day, a day devoted to studying and discussing all phases of campus life. Interest in government was furthered by the Young Republicans Club, not only with their on-campus activities, but also through their meetings with leading political figures.

To better on-campus relations, the Interfraternity Council planned the theme and program for Interfraternity Week, and arranged for Dr. Mosley to be the speaker for the Interfraternity Vespers which opened the program. Part of the Bonds of Friendship, too, goes to support our foreign students, a vital part of Denison's program to increase her scope of interest.

Winter Scenes

This winter Granville was besieged by one of the heaviest snows in her history. It made walking and driving a little rough but we didn't mind it, especially when it gave us a few extra days of parale at Thanksgiving vacation.

The snow gave the town an entirely different appearance, gave us a chance to leave studies for tobogganing parties and made the campus even more beautiful. But through it all we dreamed of and waited for—that's right—those lazy days of luxury and leisure at Spring Valley.

Social Life . . .

There are other highlights, too, which have strictly student appeal.

Among these is the illustrious senior men's social honorary, Theta Eta Chi. This organization, the purpose of which the founders are not quite sure, was recently organized for furthering the cultivation of a taste for—let's say social behavior.

Senior Revolt Day, too, has student appeal, naturally mostly for the seniors. Among their activities on the day when they push aside all thoughts of study for fun is the reading of the Senior Class Will.

The thought of the faculty taking time for relaxation raises student interest, too! Somehow we always thought the faculty spent their time for relaxation figuring ways to ruin ours!

. . . From The Lighter Side . . .

Novelty and costume parties provide a chance for real ingenuity, not only in the theme of the party, but more especially in the costumes which are worn.

Typical and popular among these parties are: the Sig Bloody Bucket where the couples must come in complementary costumes; the SAE Frontier Days, a party featuring the life in the days of the wild and wooly west; the ACC Gambling Casino where money flows like water, and the Beta Military Ball, complete with a band, a parade, army chow and even the camp followers!

... To More Formal Occasions

A change in pace of social life comes when sophistication is the keynote of a dance or party.

An example of this is the Phi Gamma Spring Formal, traditionally held under the stars, with the background a beautiful spring evening.

Sophistication, too, is the keynote of sorority initiation week-end. Fitting right in with this is the annual Phi Delta Open House which honors the new sorority initiates, providing them with entertainment, refreshments, hospitality, and a chance to show off those newly acquired pins!

Don't worry about the three gals in the corner. No one is sharp as these three miss any of the parties. This is just to show you how they spend their time after hours—and these are the people that get the top grades!

No look at a Denison year could possibly be complete without a consideration of the excellent performances provided by the theater department.

The long hours of casting, rehearsing, set building and costuming have never disappointed an expectant Denison audience. Farce, comedy, melodrama, tragedy, musical—all are done with the same amount of excellence, precision and skill. And all performances provide the same high caliber of entertainment.

Leading this year's collection of successful presentations was "Once In A Lifetime," a riotous comedy about the people connected with the early days of the movie industry.

Following this was the theater production of the musical play, "The Poor Soldier," the first play ever given in Ohio, presented in collaboration with the state's centennial celebration.

Working with the department of music, the annual operetta that the theater group presented was the popular Gilbert and Sullivan work, "The Mikado."

"The White Steed" followed, joining the ranks of theater successes, and the theater season ended with the memorable production of "The Madwoman of Chaillot" (p. 128).

These theater productions offer an excellent opportunity for those in the theater department to show their abilities, not only as actors, but also as technicians. The number of those participating and attending and the quality of programs presented make each theater production a stellar spot on the Denison calendar.

Days To Remember

This is a year at Denison from the days of Freshman Week until the last senior has proudly received his diploma.

The activities and parties shown here were supported by freshman and seniors alike. For the freshman their next three years promise a more active participation in these activities as they rise to positions of leadership in academic and social life.

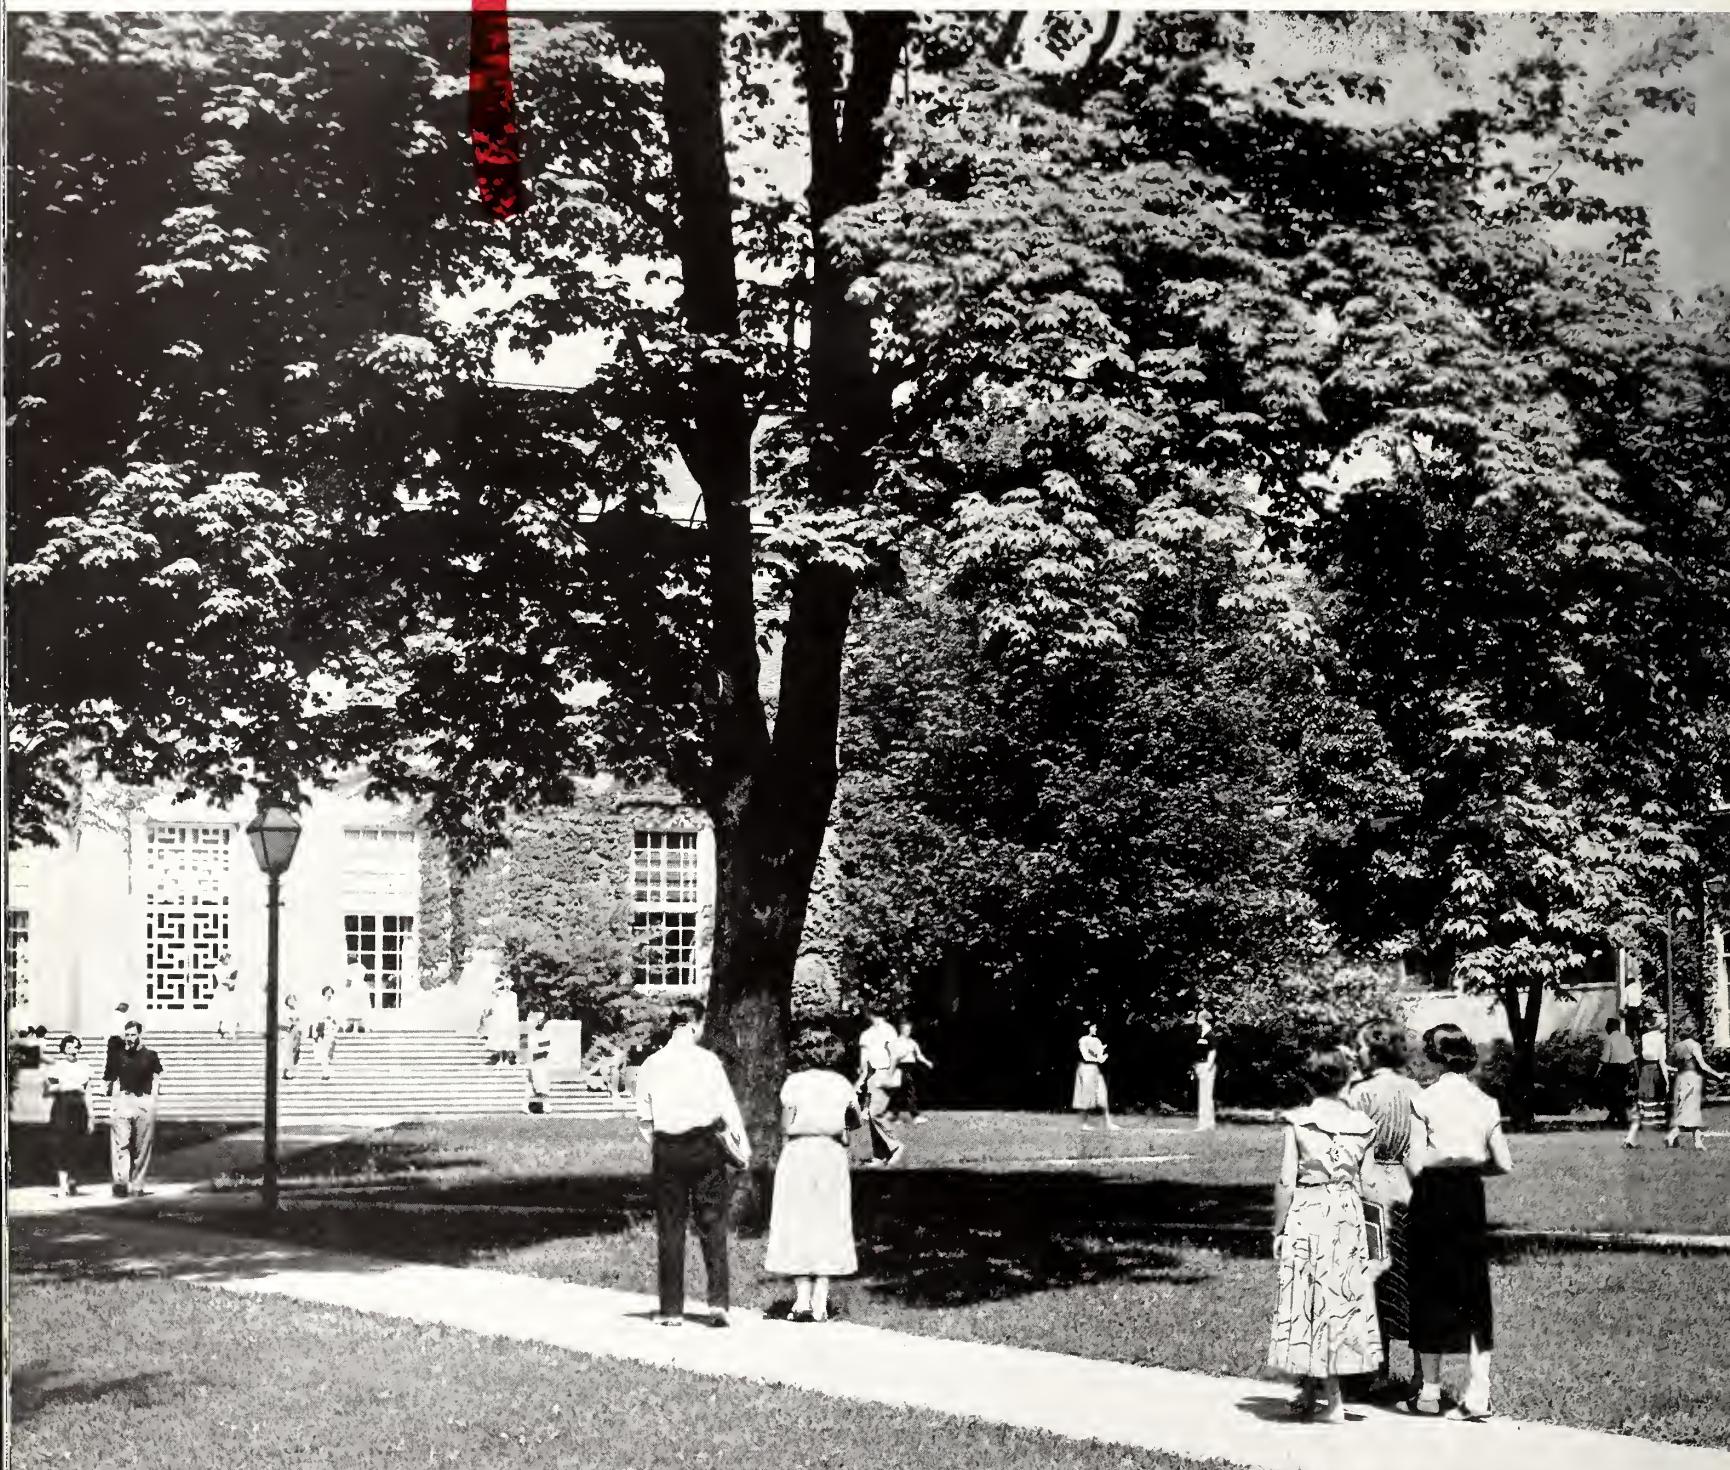

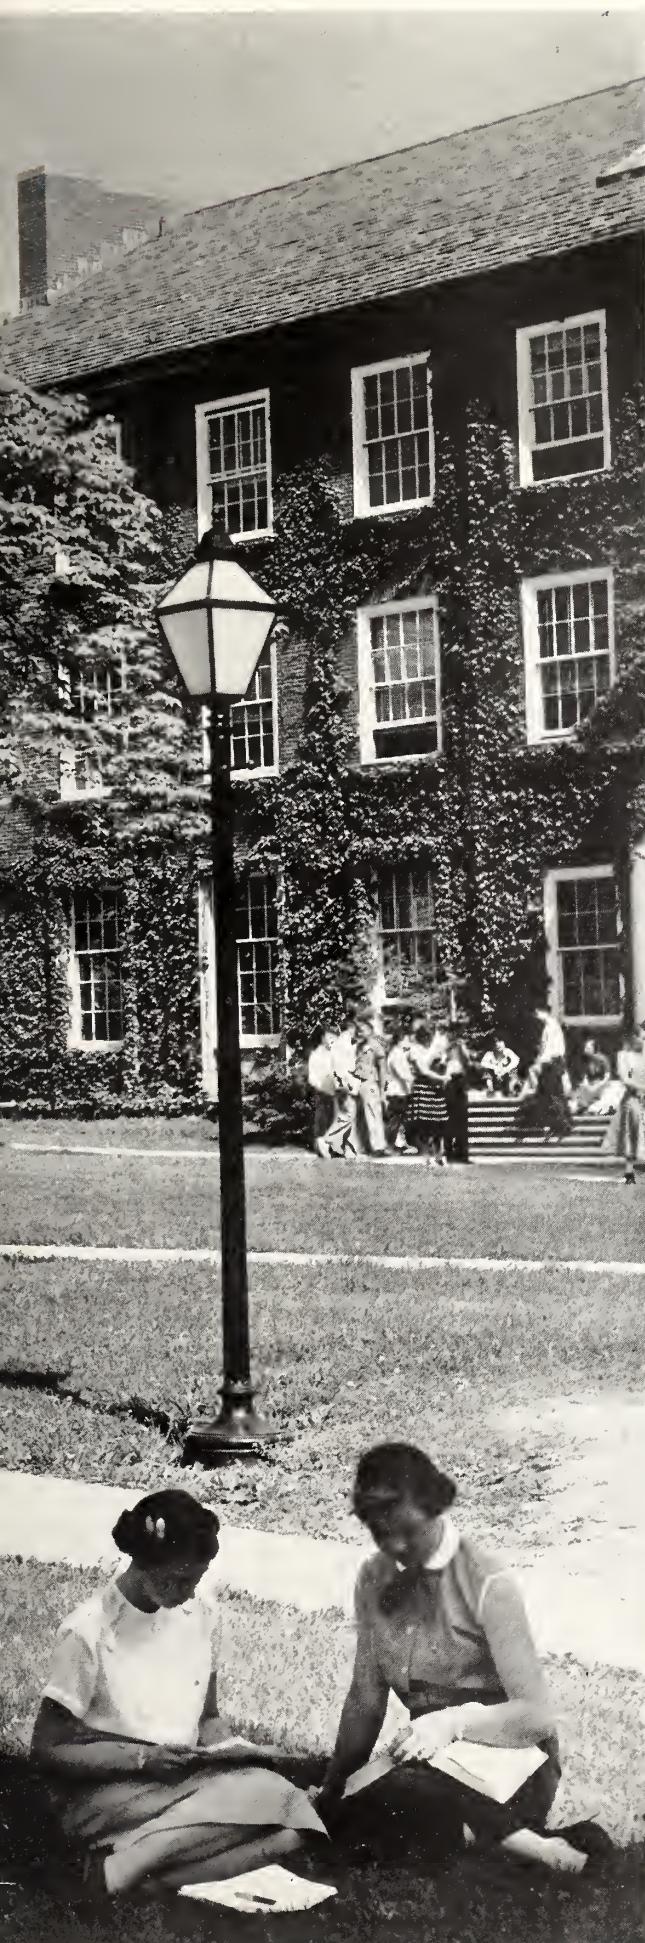

For the seniors they are memories of days never to be equaled, of experiences never to be re-lived, of friendships never to be forgotten.

The spirit at the games, the fun of dorm parties, the first days when the men seemed just as happy to stick by themselves—all these are remembered by the senior as he takes a last look at his school and as he approaches the last step of his college career, finally realizing the fulfillment of a dream.

The Classes . . .

Where would any educational institution be without the men and women who compose its student body?

These are the people who keep a school running. They are the ones who accept responsibility and leadership and who share in making an effective administration. They provide the spirit and life-blood of a university which alone can make a university great.

Juniors

Finally acknowledged as upperclassmen, the juniors prepare to accept the responsibilities of the offices they will hold the following year. By providing men and women junior advisers, campus government officers, and qualified personnel for other campus offices, the juniors should serve as inspiration to the underclassmen.

The busy juniors find time for relaxation, though, and even in extra-curricular activities they hope to direct the underclassmen along the proper paths.

Sophomores

Flushed with victory of having one year of college under their belts, the roaring sophomores return, dedicated to the proposition of licking the ill-fated slump of which they have been warned. They begin the year eager to give the rest of the students the clue, but something drains their energy and sure enough, pretty soon, they don't even have enough sense to come in out of the rain.

Freshmen

What does a freshman remember most? Is it the two days of orientation tests, the cold shots, the freshman mixer, the beanies, the first D-day, the term papers? Chances are the most remembered moments are ones like those pictured here—those moments of ill-gotten pleasure which mean staying up just that much later to finish reading the Odyssey.

Fraternities . . .

Denison is justly proud of her sorority and fraternity system. Through the able functioning of the Panhellenic and Interfraternity Councils, all social behavior has been in accord with the high standards established by the university. The healthy competition provided by awards for Homecoming decorations, intramurals, and song contests has served to stimulate each group to its peak of performance. The existing feeling of mutual help and co-operation has made Denison's sorority and fraternity program deserving of high and continued commendation.

Chi Omega

The history of Chi Omega dates back to April 5, 1895, when, at the University of Arkansas, the sorority destined to become the largest national women's fraternity, was founded in a Southern setting. Chi Omega now numbers 112 active chapters. Theta Gamma Alpha, a local sorority, was installed as the Delta Gamma chapter of Chi Omega in the fall of 1928, thus becoming the first national sorority on the Denison campus. The present house, based on Southern Colonial architecture, was built in 1939 and overlooks Sorority Circle.

The southern traditions of Chi Omega were further carried out this spring when the chapter held its second annual Southern Ball. In an atmosphere of southern grandeur, a dinner was held at the Granville Inn, followed by a formal dance at the house.

Chi Omegas have played a leading role in campus activities this year. Lucy Long and Pat Tubaugh were members of Crossed Keys, and Marilyn Cruikshank became a member of Mortar Board. Pat Tubaugh and Lucy Long also were Junior Advisors, and Sherry Shaheen, Jo Johnson, and Nancy Nussbaum are to follow in their footsteps next year. Rusty Barton was co-editor of the Denisonian, while Noncy Nussbaum was the news editor.

This year Lynn Shields was the president of the Denison chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, and was also its national secretary. Marilyn Cruikshank was the president of Tau Kappa Alpha, and Lucy Long was the treasurer.

Chi Omega was represented in the Women's Music Honorary where Ginger Rossman was vice-president and program chairman. Pat Tubbough was the secretary of Senote, while Lynn Shields was a member of Women's Judicial Council. Nancy Nussbaum was a member of Senate and of the Rules Committee.

In the field of scholarship, Phyllis Dye, Ann Hoebeke, and Ann Kinney were elected to Phi Society, and Jean Whitney became a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Marilyn Cruikshank was the president of the Students Speakers Bureau.

The social activities of Chi Omega this year included the Southern Ball, the Pon-Hell, and Pledge formal dances. The Chi O's held open houses for several of the fraternities and sororities and this fall entertained the faculty children with a Halloween party. Dad's Day and Mothers' Day Bonquets were on the social calendar also, plus Homecoming, at which time the Chi O's placed second with house decorations.

Kappa Alpha Theta

Kappa Alpha Theta, the first women's Greek letter fraternity, was founded at Asbury College (now De Pauw) in Greencastle, Indiana, on January 27, 1870. Denison's Beta Tau chapter was previously Chi Psi Delta, a local sorority founded at Gilpatrick House in 1900, and it was welcomed into Kappa Alpha Theta in June, 1929.

The Theta House, oldest in Granville, is the site of many traditional functions. Each year at Christmas there is a party with the Wee White House receiving all the presents. The fall Dad's Day and spring Mother's Day see luncheon banquets followed the next morning with late breakfasts. The fall witnessed the traditional Western Party, minus the square dancing, saving the living room floor, and the open house for the heros of the gridiron. The Pan-Hellenic Dance held jointly for the first time in the Bigwam was followed by an open house. All year long the Sweetheart Pillow, bearing the names of all the pinned and engaged couples, receives new names.

The February Pledge Formal, "Theta Heaven," transformed the house into a virtual paradise. The Spring Pan-Hellenic Dance was also held in the house, decorated with spring flowers. Later in the spring, there was an open house featuring dancing and outdoor bridge. Pledge skits provided entertainment for most of these social functions, limelighting Audie Goodman at the piano.

Theta supports an Institute of Logopedics in Wichita, Kansas, for the study and correction of all types of speech defects. As a chapter project, Beta Tau adopted a Dutch girl, Urka, and helped support her through the Foster Parent's Plan for War Children.

On campus, too, the Thetas have been active. Sally Brown was president of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, and Peggy Pole, Marty Shorts, and Suzie Walters were members of Crossed Keys, junior women's honorary. Junior Advisors were Peggy Pole, Marty Shorts and Jane Fenwick. Sally Brown was head of Women's Judiciary and Winnie Webb was co-chairman of the Bonds of Friendship Drive.

Black and Gold also walked away with top honors for the best Bonds of Friendship Show Sorority Skit. This year marked the beginning of a tradition consisting of giving a cup to the victorious sorority. The skit, "Local Connections," was repeated on Mother's Day.

Roses go to Jane Fenwick for being voted first attendant to the Junior Prom Queen, although illness kept her from attending the Prom itself. Also to Nancy Eshelman and Mary Jo Gibbs for being on the court of the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

Chapter suppers and parties for the pledges were given as well as showers for the girls who became engaged. Social functions were topped off with the annual banquet for the seniors by the alumnae.

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Chi chapter of Delta Delta Delta was installed on the Denisan campus in October, 1929, and was the secand natiinal sorority ta be estab-lished in Granville. Over the years since that date, Tri Delta has kept alive the traditions in a camman band of friendship.

One of Tri Delta's traditions is the National Schalarship Fund which was started in 1942. This financial aid is open ta any waman student, regardless af affiliation, on any campus having a Tri Delta chapter. In additian ta the schalarship, the Tri Deltas work an their social service project, and travel ance a week ta the Licking Caunty Old Falks Hame where they sing and entertain the women there. The chapter is also quite proud af its 2.9 average, and af the electian af Marilyn Crosby and Barbara Russell ta Phi Beta Kappa. Wearing the Crassed Keys af the juniar women's hanarary are Mary Alice Berger and Patti James. Beverly Brown, newly elected ca-president af DCGA, was appainted to Martar Baard.

The year has been filled with happy events and old traditians, starting with the Faunders' Day Banquet and ending with the Pansy Breakfast, where a sad farewell is given ta the departing seniors. In between these two events the house is filled with feverish activity. Patti James has been busy with the Denison Diary, broadcasting over WCLT, while Marilyn Stone has been chosen by the government department for the Washington Semester.

A special vote of praise goes to Louise Davis who reigned as queen over the Junior Prom. Dorothy Markert has been active in DCEP, while Janet MacMahon was elected president of Orchesis, National Womens' Dance Honorary. Ruth Grabeman has been busy with the year's social service project, and was recently chosen as a junior advisor.

Chapter functions and social events with other groups on campus have kept Tri Delta busy.

Homecoming was a great success with a large group of Tri Deltas returning from last year's senior class, and the Dad's Day luncheon was climaxed with much laughter when the pledge class presented a skit entitled "Life With Daughter." A costume party for dates was held at the beginning of the year, and much socializing has taken place with other fraternities and sororities. Mother's Week-end has come and gone, and commencement is at hand, bringing the end of another fun and work-filled year in Delta Delta Delta.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

First ond foremost in the minds of the Koppes this yeor is the reolization of o dream we hove cherisched for mony years—our new Kappa house! It has been the hord work of the Kappa columnoe, and octives—this yeor under the able leodership of Pom Hudson—that hos mode this new house possible. Although we shall never forget the "wee white house" ond its mony memories, it wos with greet joy ond excitement thot we moved into our new Kopp home on the twenty-fifth of April.

Besides the excitement of moving into o new house, the Koppes have had on eventful yeor—the results of which hove been many offices, honors, sociol events, ond especially the work on our sociol service project, the TB sanatorium of Licking County. Choirmon Donno Bewley ond her ossistant, Kenny Worfield, worked with the YWCA to plon the program of octivities. Once every two weeks volunteer members visit the sonotorium to entertain the patients. This project hos been beneficil not only to the patients, but also to the Koppo girls who go over there. Through these visits, they hove become more owore of the special problems ond needs of those at the sonotorium.

Koppes holding offices in school activities this year ore Joon Widdowson, president of YWCA, and Jean Dungan, newly-elected vice-president of the same organization. Joan Pease is the newly-elected co-judicial chairman of DCGA.

New honors for the year go to Beverly Fall for Phi Society, Jo Pease and Jean Dungan tapped for Mortar Board, and Mary Jane Chenoweth for Crossed Keys. Bev Fall and Mary Jane Chenoweth were chosen to serve as Junior Advisors next year.

In addition to fraternity open-houses and Koffee Klaches with other sororities, the Kappa house, both new and old, has been the scene of many other social events, among them, the Big and Little sister parties, formals, Mother's and Father's Day banquets, and a novelty party to which the Kappas and their dates came dressed as song titles.

The pledges entertained freshman of other sororities at their "South Pacific" party. The senior Kappas were guests of the entire chapter at the Rose Quarry for the traditional senior picnic. Also on the social calendar and following a tradition established by the freshmen last year was the "pancake breakfast"—a project under the direction of the Kappa freshmen.

Crowned this year with the laurels of beauty were Peggy Malpass, Campus Queen, and Peggy Schairer who was a member of the Homecoming, Junior Prom, and, along with Kappa sophomore, Kay Dodge, the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi courts.

Alpha Phi

Alpha Phi noble fraternity symbol of loyalty,
When we cannot be near we'll always revere you.
Our love will live on and on thro' the years.
Alpha Phi with colors blithe and gay.
Bordeaux and silver gray guide us thro' every sorrow,
May each tomorrow prove our love for you.

Alpha Phi had its beginning at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, in the fall of 1872. The present Alpha Phi chapter at Denison was organized as Phi Phi Phi in 1921, and in 1930 the group became Beta Kappa chapter of Alpha Phi. They have the distinction of being first in the country and on the Denison campus to build and occupy a chapter house.

Alpha Phi has sustained its leadership throughout the years. Not only was Alpha Phi the first women's fraternity to publish a history of its first fifty years, but it also called the first inter-sorority conference. This organization later became the Panhellenic Conference. The Visiting Delegate was another creation of Alpha Phi, who was first to have its chapters inspected by a member of the national board.

Socially speaking, Alpha Phi is proud of its many activities and customs which have served to add a strong feeling of unity to the chapter for many years. The traditional Old English Dinner took place this year at the Granville Inn. After a delightful meal, a dance was held at the house. The Pledge Formal is also one of the events to be long remembered by a new member of Alpha Phi. The dance, with a theme of "Pink Champagne," furnished the pledges and their escorts one of the most festive occasions of the pledge year. Other social events included the Homecoming celebration and the Mother's and Father's Day luncheons.

Outstanding personal honors have been awarded to many members of Alpha Phi. Crossed Keys members for the coming year include Sally Addoms, Gerry Granfield, and Norma Humel. Jean Rippl was tapped by Mortar Board and was also a Junior Advisor. Peggy Crawley and Sigrid Meisse are new members of the Masquers and the University Players, respectively. The forensic honorary, Tau Kappa Alpha, tapped Eljee Young for membership, and Sally Addoms and Mary Bailey were chosen for the music honoraries. Tapped for Franco-Calliopean, were Jody Goodsell and Lynn Byrd Wilson.

In the field of beauty, Alpha Phi has reason to be proud of the silver cup which was presented to Nancy Friel on her election of Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Nancy was also an attendant in the court of the Homecoming queen. The SAE's further honored Alpha Phi by choosing Marilyn Graham as the sweetheart of their pledge class.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Alpha Omicron Pi,
Friends as the years go by;
Loving sisters are we,
Loyal forever, Alpha to thee.

Alpha Omicron Pi began a prosperous year with the pledge class entertaining all other women at brunch. Since then, the little white house on the hill has been buzzing with activity. Among the more important social functions that have taken place during the year are a scholarship banquet (lots of fun even for those who didn't reach that four point), Homecoming, Dad's and Mother's Day, the pledge formal with its entrancing theme, Davey Jones' Locker, and last but far from least, the Rose Ball, which seemed to be the biggest success of the year.

Philanthropic work and social work are two of the keystones of the spirit of Alpha Tau. This year by means of contributions made at its Christmas party, Alpha Tau was able to send a box of goods and toys to a poor community in Hyden, Kentucky. Alpha Tau is also very proud to have among her alumnae Dr. Mary Kirby Berry, whose work in Burma is supported by the Bonds of Friendship. The local service group of Alpha Omicron Pi is the Golden Project established at Utica, Ohio. The purpose of this group is to unite these Golden Agers into a club and thereby to formulate new interests for them.

Traditions in the form of rings was continued when Janie Wonders passed the president's ring to Claire Warlow and Jackie Sovulewski gave the model pledge ring to Carol Taylor.

As for campus doings, Alpha Tau certainly isn't lagging behind. In the realm of beauty, Doree

Ernst certainly was an outstanding Homecoming Queen. Campus Magazine was made more attractive when they featured the pictures of Lou Morrison and Marion Case.

But honors come to Alpha Omicron Pi for other reasons than beauty. Jackie Sovulewski was tapped for Crossed Keys and University Players. Betty Litchfield and Nancie MacDonald for music honorary; Marian Eschmeyer for journalism; Ann Moyers for speech honorary; Chris Kornman for University Players, and Doree Heller for Masquers.

For here's to Delta Gamma, to her girls so true,
To the bronze and pink and blue.
Here's to all her friendships,
Friendships tried and true.
Now we sing this song to you,
Happy that we've met you,
Sorry we must part,
With the hope we'll meet again.
Here's a song to new friends,
Loyalty to old friends,
Delta Gamma friends, good-night.

Delta Gamma

Beta Zeta chapter of Delta Gamma, third oldest national women's fraternity took its place on the Denison campus in 1938. Our goal is today, as it was at the date of our founding in 1873, friendship and loyalty coupled with the highest standards of personal conduct and scholarship.

The highlight of this year's activities came with initiation when twenty-three girls lost the title of "pledge" to become wearers of the golden anchor. Following initiations was the traditional formal banquet, at which a ring was presented to the year's outstanding pledge, Pam Erickson. Those pinned or engaged during the past year took their customary run around the banquet table and the evening's festivities ended with a DG toast.

On the social agenda were the Panhel Informals, Pledge Formal, Christmas party, and various fraternity and sorority get-togethers. The pledges surprised their big sisters with a Paddle Party during which they presented them with cleverly designed paddles—to be used for purely decorative purposes!

With the coming of spring, came the yearly task of housecleaning. Under the supervision of Mil Curtis, the house emerged neat and clean, ready to receive its guests on Mother's Day Week-end. The Mother's Day and Dad's Day luncheons were each a huge success, and the crowded conditions around the luncheon table did not lessen the fun had by all.

Those girls with high scholastic averages found their efforts rewarded at the Scholarship Banquet served by the remaining half of the chapter. Nancy Kauffman received the Scholarship Plaque in recognition of having achieved the greatest improvement in grade point-average. Beta Zetas have been active in the Delta Gamma national project, "Sight Conservation and Aid to the Blind." The Braille Club of Newark was entertained at the house as in previous years and blind families in the vicinity were visited throughout the year. Carol Swisher is to be commended on her excellent job as project chairman.

Personal recognition is due to Marion Campbell who was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and to Connie Ford, Tapped for Mortar Board. Selected for Crossed Keys, sophomore women's honorary, were Carol Peterson and Margie Winters.

Succeeding Pat Brown and Connie Ford as Junior Advisors are Marilyn Birkemeier, Mil Curtis and Margie Winters. Lucia Howarth will serve in the capacity of all school social co-chairman. Delta Gammas were also well represented in various other honorary societies, DCEP and YWCA. Peg Titus was president of DCEP, Eloise Hill, president of WAA, and Marion Campbell, president of Women's Council. Congratulations to last year's seniors Sonny Maurer and Sylvia Stratton who reigned as May Queen and Adytum Queen, respectively.

Representatives to the National Convention at Banff, Lake Louise, last summer returned in triumph with two trophies, now proudly on display in the living room. They are the National Delta Gamma awards for Activities and Public Relations.

 And if you ask her,
 She will tell you, I love you.

The original Sheppardson Club was founded in the spring of 1920 through the efforts of President and Mrs. Chomberlain and a group of upperclass women.

This new group was unique among Denison women's social groups in its "open door" policy, which means that any girl who wishes to join may do so, regardless of race, creed, or color.

Sheppardson Club holds full membership in the Panhellenic Council, having been admitted in 1949.

For several years the Club has held top place with the highest academic average among the women's social groups.

Two of our girls have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa. They are Florence Borgmann and Lorna Zolvidor. Also two were elected to Mortar Board, Charlotte Alber and Florence Borgmann.

Those topped for honoraries were Charlotte Alber, Pi Delta Epsilon; Jean Shelford and Joy Clapp, Franco-Collopean; Esther Cervantes, June Holcomb, Wanda Thomas and Royko Yosumuro, Denison Women's Music Honorary.

Panhellenic Council

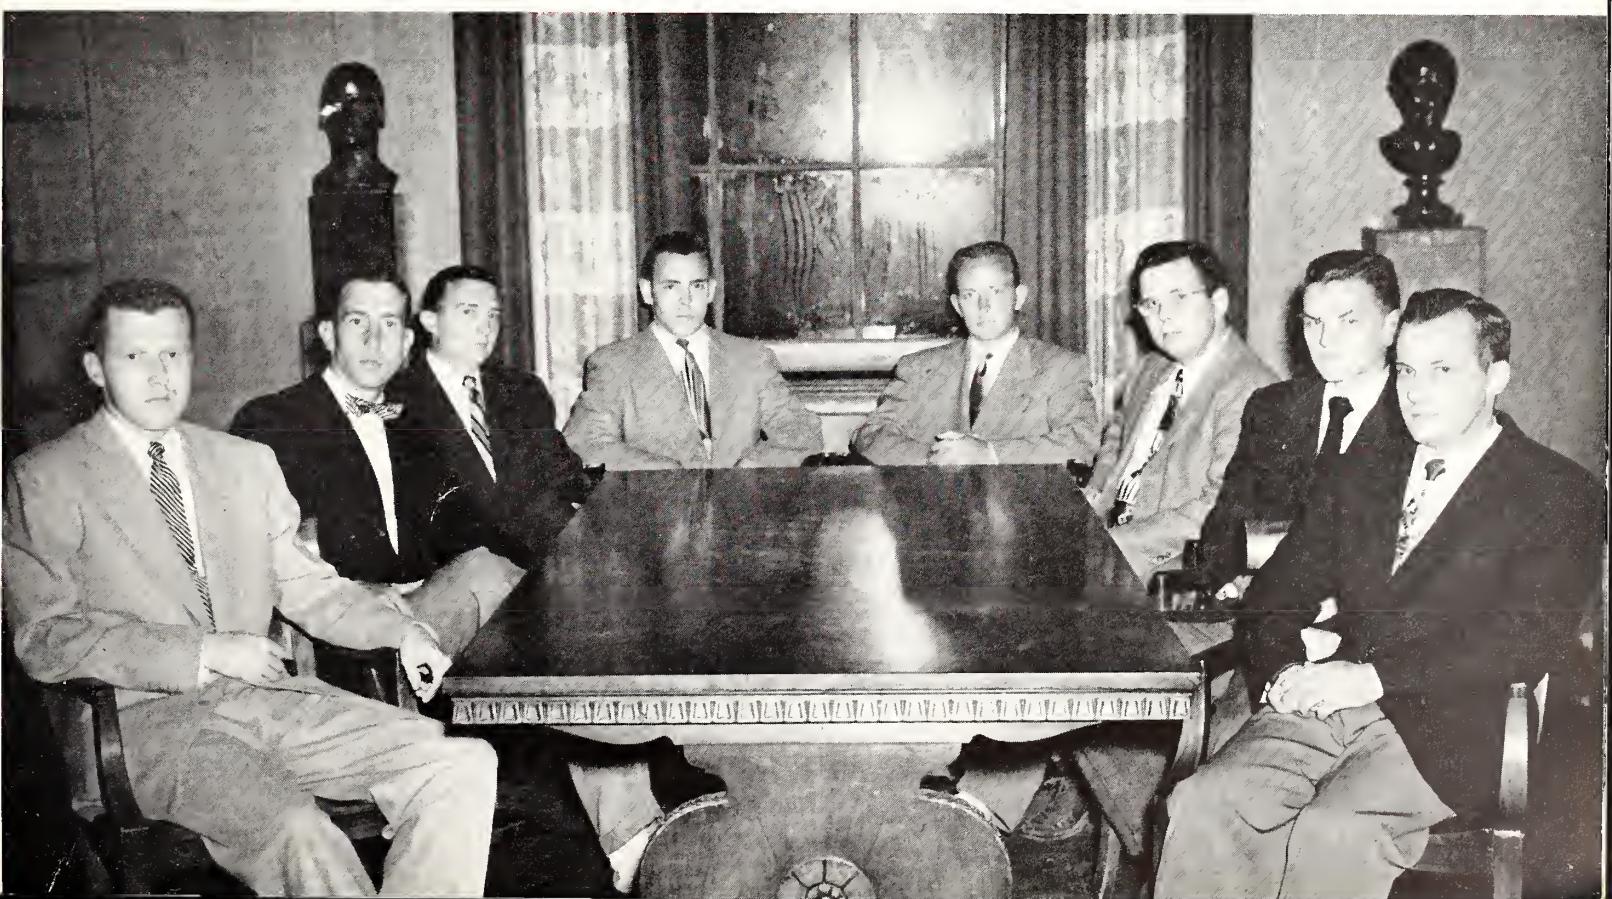

It is the job of Panhellenic Council and Interfraternity Council to govern the activities and the relations of the sororities and fraternities on campus, and to promote the friendly interfraternity spirit that exists among these groups. These organizations co-operate fully with the administration on all matters affecting fraternity life, and they endeavor to make fraternities an even more vital part of campus life.

Sigma Chi

The Blue and Gold began their initial thrust upon the Miami University campus, Oxford, Ohio, in the year 1855. Denison's own chapter, Mu, kindled into existence thirteen years later, in 1868.

This past school year we find Mr. Mu celebrating his 83rd birthday and still going strong. When the fall football season pushed underway again, eleven Mu men rallied to the call. Jack Boyer, in his last year of action, was voted the Best Offensive Backfield Man and the most valuable player. Don Warren received the Best Offensive Lineman award. Jerry Cowan and Bob Wright finished their fine gridiron careers while Kent Taylor, Richard Walters, Jim Posey, Jim Shaw, Don Redman, Bob Major and Bob DeVore will be back for another season.

When the local cagers rolled into action, the team found in "Big Jim" Emanuelson an All-Ohio Conference regular with two more seasons remaining. Bob Laven, Bob Major, and senior Bob Wright also left fond memories to the somewhat starved Big Red fans.

On the diamond for the Big Red was veteran Kent Taylor who will be back next year. Freshmen Bob Cash and John Baumes also saw some action on the squad. Captain of the victorious tennis team for the second year, Jack Webb, turned in the final stellar performances of a superb career accompanied by teammate Bill Rogers. In track, Tod Heyman and Bob DeVore have helped to lighten the load of the Big Red Cindermen.

Activities men af Mu include Jack Boyer, Phi Beta Kappa and retiring President af ODK; Jerry Cawan, ODK and Men's Judiciary; Jim Richards, ODK and retired editor af The Denisonian; Chuck Travis Campus business manager and Pi Delta Epsilon; Dave McCannaughay, President af the Young Republican's Club and president of Theta Eta Chi; Jae Keaney, Co-Chairman af the Bands af Friendship; Tod Heyman, Co-Chairman af the Blaad Drive, Blue Key, and newly elected President af the fraternity; Richard Walters, newly elected President of the "D" Association and Vice-President of the fraternity; Dave Niland, Art Editor of the Adytum and newly elected secretary af the fraternity; Richard Pabst, newly elected treasurer of the fraternity; William Danley, new Editor af the Adytum; and Jerry Eha, Circulatian Manager af the Denisonian.

Beta Theta Pi

Alpha Eta chapter of Beta Theta Pi was founded at Denison in 1868. Today, eighty-three years later, Alpha Eta's men are still maintaining the high ideals and standards set down by the chapter founders.

In repetition of past years, Alpha Eta was again well represented on the varsity football squad. No less than twelve men wore the red and white of Denison as seniors Harry Bourdeau (1950 captain), Tom Reading, and Warren Morse turned in their last season. Next year's captain is Bob Sepessy. Up from the frosh squad will be eight hopefuls led by quarterback Dave Maurer. The basketball season saw Bob Sepessy and Bob Laird playing regularly at guard and forward respectively. Next year's squad will have high-scoring freshman Bob Jones trying to break into the lineup.

The current baseball season finds six Alpha Eta men playing regularly. Among them is veteran catcher Jim Mason, who is rounding out his last season. The freshman eligibility rule permits freshman Bill Ryno to hold down a regular outfield position.

Tom Creager and Ed Weber represent Alpha Eta on the Denison tennis team. On the track squad are Bob Reid, high-jumping sophomore, and freshman Gib Brown.

As always the intramural race has gained much attention from Alpha Eta chapter. This year's race finds Alpha Eta and the Kappa Sigmas battling it out with Beta only a few points behind. With softball, volleyball, track, and golf still unaccounted for, the men of Alpha Eta will be trying to bring home the championship again.

Alpha Eta was well-represented in extra-curricular activities. Outstanding among them were Tom Reading, retiring chairman of Men's Judicial Council; Bob Sepessy, next year's co-president of DCGA, Don Watkins, co-chairman of DCEP, member of ODK and Phi Beta Kappa; Tim Roudebush, next year's president of Pi Delta Epsilon; John McCarter, editor of the Denisonian and next year's president of ODK; Jock Bovington, treasurer of the junior class; Bruce McNab, ODK initiate and business manager of Men's Glee Club; and Jack Sload, next year's vice-president of the "D" Association.

As always, the traditional Beta Military Ball was the highlight of our social calendar. Retiring general of the militia, Harry Bourdeau, turns over the job to Tim Roudebush.

In closing another year the men of Alpha Eta extend their heartfelt thanks to President Warren Morse and his aides for a job well done. To the seniors we wish the best of luck and success and we sincerely hope that we can carry on in the fine tradition of Alpha Eta.

Phi Gamma Delta

Phi Gamma Delta was founded on April 28, 1848, at Jefferson College, Connorsburg, Pennsylvania. The Fraternity has expanded since that day until at the present time there are eighty-one chapters. In 1885 the Lambda Deuteron chapter was chartered with eight members, and now it proudly claims 776 members.

In addition to the usual activities, Fiji's have several events throughout the year that are unique. The 23rd annual Fiji Fisticuffs in the fall was well attended by the men of Denison and Granville. The Orphans Party at Christmas once again made each Fiji a little more a part of the Christmas spirit by sharing with someone less fortunate. The Townsman's Reception and the Norris Pig Dinner were each held again this year with outstanding success. The Pig Dinner gave the active chapter an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and to talk to many of the men who made up our chapter in past years.

The height of our social season was the Fiji Island Weekend. The brothers and their dates came to the house attired in the traditional grass skirts and sarongs, ate their meals without utensils, and danced in the tropical surroundings until curfew. The men then turned the house over to the girls for the evening after serenading them under a Fiji Moon.

Phi Gamma Delta once again gave evidence of its leadership as brothers Matthews, Veh, McCulloch, Chase, Walters, Sherman, and Chamberlin held memberships in ODK, Senior Men's Honorary. Fijis also were represented in Blue Key, with nine members, and with brothers Sherman, Walters and Chamberlin as president, vice-president and secretary for the coming year. Pi Delta Epsilon, journalistic honorary, had six Phi Gams as members, with Dick Chase as the past president and Hal Kennedy as the new treasurer. Brother Chamberlin was elected as president of Phi Mu Alpha, the music honorary, and Dick Chase led Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary.

In campus activities Fijis were very active with brother Veh acting as chairman of the Board of Control of Publications. Hal Kennedy is the new business manager of the Denisonian and Joe Sheets and Ted Cochran are co-advertising managers. Brother Matthews was editor of Campus magazine, Dick Chase was associate editor, and Ed Johnston acted as technical advisor.

Second row: Bassler, Halvorsen, D. Mirrilees, Bachelor, Sherman, Matthews, Dyer, Veh, Higley, Johnston, A. Mirrilees, Chase

Brothers Dyer and Chase were Senior and Sports editors respectively of the Adyutum. Dick Chase was also elected president of the Young Republicans Club. Dave Sherman was Secretary-Treasurer of DCEP and Glenn Walters headed Deni-Sunday.

The new all school Social Co-chairman is brother Hart Dake, and Glenn Walters was elected co-vice-president of DCGA. For the past year Dan Chamberlin has held the post of treasurer of DCGA.

Phi Gamma Delta was well represented in athletics by "D" men Keeley, Zweier, Savage, Sherman, Johnson, Landrum, Ames, Cochran, Mirrilees, Young, Bruce Reid, Newell, and Moore. Those winning their numerals this year were Brophy, Inboden, Young, Rice, Brickman, and Shorney.

Kappa Sigma

Koppo Sigmo was founded at the University of Virginio on December 10, 1869. The fraternity had its origin in a European brotherhood founded at the University of Bologna in Italy in the year 1400. The spirit and ideals of this old society were reborn on American soil as Kappa Sigma. Gamma Xi chapter, founded in 1911, was the fourth national fraternity to be established on the Denison campus.

This has been a fine year for Kappa Sigma at Denison. Our men have been active in all phases of campus life. In varsity athletics Kappa Sig was well-represented. Jim Moore, who won the Gregory Award for best defensive back, John Wozinski, Don Alt, John Peterson, Ken Bossett, Tom Minor, Bill Kell, and Don Bren were on the varsity football team. Jim MacFarland represented the chapter on the hardwood at the Big Game, and the baseball season saw Don Alt, Art Kleck, Zeke Ellis and Tim Healy at the plate. Bill Whitmer played with the golf team and the Big Red Cindersmen were aided by the services of captain Dick Elliot, Irv Horlamert, Jock Welling, and Ken Bossett. The freshman teams also had Kappa Sig representatives. Bob Vogt and Jock Schenk were on the freshman football squad and in basketball, Vogt and Tim Healy were on deck. To drum up enthusiasm for the Big Red were Kappa Sig cheerleaders George Bergquist and Dave Rounds. During Homecoming festivities our parade of lawn mowers with the caption "Mow 'Em Down" won the first place award.

On the intramural scene our men are leading in the close race for the IM trophy as the spring season starts. The highlight of our year athletically was our undefeated team in basketball coached by Pete Guernsey.

Active in Denison theatrical productions were Kappa Sigs Fred Bogaert, Dave Rounds, Frank Cover, and Don Wilde, who are members of Masquers, and also Chuck Lundquist. As our contribution to Deni-Service, we "adopted" the Orphans Home in Newark with George Davis leading our program. Jim Kornmesser served as co-chairman of the Blanch Project. Phi Beta Kappa keys were bestowed upon two Kappa Sigs, Larry Johnson and Sam McHutchinson. Two of our men were in ODK, Frank Cover and Doug Brooks. Wearers of the Blue Key were president Frank Cover, Dave Rounds, Don Wilde, Bill Win-ship, Fred Bogaert, Ken Bassett, and Jerry Moore. In campus government was Doug Brooks who served as co-vice-president of DCGA. Ken Bassett was president of the sophomore class and Chuck Lundquist served as social chairman for the school.

The "White Greek Temple on Broadway" was alive with parties and dances many times during the year, and this social activity seems to have taken its toll on many of the brothers romantically speaking. Enjoying everything from formals to hayrides under the shining crescent and the sparkling star, our chapter had a busy social calendar.

In bidding our graduating seniors good luck for the future we want to thank them for the brotherhood and endeavor that has given Kappa Sigma an excellent year at Denison.

Phi Delta Theta

Over one hundred years ago, at historic Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, six outstanding students founded the Phi Delta Theta fraternity which was to have as its basis the three principles of friendship, sound learning, and rectitude. From this beginning, the fraternity spread to other colleges, and so, in 1916 the Denison chapter of Phi Delta Theta was formed. Denison Phis are now a part of an international brotherhood that maintains chapters at 110 schools and consists of over 80,000 loyal brothers.

The past year found the Phi Delt banner waving high in all phases of campus endeavor. Athletically speaking, Phi Dels gained prominence in all sports. Football season found Dick Huff as one of the anchors in the Big Red forward wall, while basketball fans kept one eye on forward Joe Fassett and the other on freshman Don DeJong who was high scorer for the freshman five. The advent of spring brought more Phi Dels on the sports scene. Freshman Wayne Peterson held down the second base slot on the diamond squad, while Sam McKenney added his talents to the pitching staff. Dave Endres and Don DeJong were prominent on the varsity cinder squad with the latter setting several new high jump records. Bill Austin, Paul Van Nostran, and Chuck Peckham occupied three out of the possible four positions on the varsity golf team. On the intramural scene, the chapter placed consistently high in all sports. Phi Delta Theta placed first in intramural golf for the sixth consecutive year. In basketball, the Phi Delt teams ranked second in both leagues, and we held third place in football. In addition, Phi Delt tied for first place in the annual Mother's Day song contest.

Campus honoraries and activities were well supplied with the wearers of the sword and shield. Bill Austin and Dave Taylor were members of Omicron Delta Kappa in recognition of their leadership on campus. Phi Delts in Blue Key were Dave Taylor, vice president, Don Fellabaum, Bill Austin, Joe Fassett, and Don Habbe. Louis Fry served as president of Alpha Epsilon Delta, and many Phis were members of departmental honoraries.

Prominent among the top positions on school publications were the names of many Phi Delts. Bill Austin held the editorship of the Adyutum for the year and the Denisonian had as its sports writer, Vic Shroyer who was followed by Jack Swisher at the same post. Numerous other Phi Delts held positions on the staffs of school publications.

Socially speaking, the year was packed with success. Perhaps the most outstanding and novel function was the second annual She Delta Theta party, for which about forty girls endured a mock "hell week" and initiation in order to be initiated into the unique society of She Delta Theta. The hilarious half formal dance and an exclusive Esquire party were additions to the social calendar that were big hits with the brothers and their dates. Rounding out the social picture were the annual formals with the accompanying famous Phi Delt decorations, as well as numerous open houses and a weekly dinner for each one of the sororities.

In closing the year our heartiest congratulations go to our graduating seniors as do our sincere thanks to the faithful efforts of our advisors, Larry Goodell and Ted Preston. As in the past, may we continue to crown our efforts with success. "March On Phi Delta Theta . . ."

Lambda Chi Alpha

Founder's Day is celebrated by Lambda Chi Alpha on March 22, on which date in 1909 several law students at Boston University founded a fraternity that was destined to become the most extensive in the Greek world, now totalling 142 chapters in all. The Denison chapter came into existence in 1919 with the acceptance of the local Sycamore Club into the bonds of Lambda Chi Alpha.

The year's social calendar produced a complete and satisfying result with movie parties, open houses, picnics, and formals constituting the bulk of the social whirl. An outstanding event was the Crescent Girl dance at which time the sweetheart of Lambda Chi was coronated, but the entire social season was highlighted by the annual "Dive Party." This yearly costume party simulates a honky-tonk Parisian cafe complete with the abbreviated costumes of the Maries and the white scarves and berets of the Pierres. A handsome paddy-wagon aptly christened "Les Gendarmes" was delegated to round up the wayward femmes with assistance given by the conscientious Garde du Corps.

Adding singing laurels to the fraternity was the pledge class who took first place in the annual pledge song contest, and the quartet which placed third in the interfraternity quartet competition.

A number of the brothers during the year have been elected to various honoraries and responsible positions in campus activities. Among the more outstanding of them are Harry Sharp who was elected to Blue Key, ODK, and to the co-presidency of DCEP; David Fullmer who beside being proxy of the chapter was tapped by TKA and elected to Blue Key; Robert Stinchcomb who served as co-chairman of Homecoming and was also elected to Blue Key and ODK; Barrie Bedell who became editor of Campus; Donn Daganhart who was elected to the co-chairmanship of Deni-Service; Glenn Seils and Ed Volz who were elected vice-president and secretary respectively of Phi Mu Alpha; Fred DuBois who became president of the A Capella choir; and Tom Rees, Doug McKee and Dave Pickett who all were elected to Alpha Epsilon Delta, pre-med honorary. Bud Steele and Jack Yianitsus were honored by election into the University Players, while Ed Montgomery performed on the football field while leading the marching band in the capacity of drum major.

With the emphasis in college now being placed on scholarship as a basis for deferment from the draft, the chapter responded readily by elevating itself to second position scholastically among the fraternities on campus.

Efforts are increasing toward the goal of building the new house on fraternity row with hopes high that construction will begin soon. Toward this end of collecting the necessary funds to go ahead, the chapter sponsored the annual Lazarus Department Store style show which resulted in a great success not only for Lazarus but for the chapter.

The intramural scene finds the Lambda Chi athletes in an advantageous position with anticipations for a substantial improvement in the final standings this year.

Throughout the year the chapter has consistently placed teams in strong contention for individual sports crowns.

There comes a time in all our lives
When we must needs feel glad;
There comes a time in all our lives
When we must needs feel sad;
But now's the time when we feel glad,
It's not the time when we feel sad,
A jolly time can e'er be had,
In Sigma Alpha Epsilon,
Graven deep on our hearts,
Shall be found unwavering true
When from life we part.
Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
It will never die;
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Sealed by Sigma's tie.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Ohio Mu chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, installed on the Denison campus in 1919, has had a relatively short life in comparison with others of her own chapters, and other fraternities at Denison. In the short span since the local Omega Pi Epsilon was founded, the chapter has had its share of undergraduate life, and has produced some prominent alums, too. Among these are Ed Alward, who lives in Granville, and who was one of the charter members; James Christie, assistant prosecuting attorney of Lorain County, who addressed the student body in chapel during the Honors Convocation; and Don Weaver, editor of the Columbus Citizen. Some of our more current personalities are Mrs. Mildred Northey, our gem of a cook; Dr. Lionel Crocker, long-time faithful faculty advisor; and John Wood, American Pointer, loyal pup of Minerva. The chapter was sorry to say goodbye this year to Hal "Goph" Humphries, for many years our alumni advisor, and now moving from Granville.

A tradition was begun this year which promises to further the friendly rivalry between the Phi Gams and us. Originated by the Phi Gam's own Klee Matthews and our Al Vastyan, the Purple Pot games add zest to the spring and fall intramural programs. The last three D-Days have seen intramural contests between the two chapters, the football game of the fall of the year proving the most colorful of all. The brothers marched over the hill to the game, the goalposts were streaming with purple and gold and white, and at the halftime a "lovely" queen was crowned. Through this first match, the Phi Gams won first possession of the new "Purple Pot" trophy. In the spring the whole neighborhood around Prospect and Elm Streets was alarmed by the sound of hoofbeats and neighing horses. The annual over-night party this year took shape as a "frontier" affair, with the house assuming the guise of the "Last Chance Saloon" complete with swinging doors and hardboiled eggs on the bar. The neighborhood children were so impressed with the "cowboys 'n injuns" that corrals sprang up in many back yards around the block. Along musical lines, the chapter gave its traditional serenade on the night of sorority pledging.

Under Don Sharp's direction, several sweetheart serenades took place in the spring. Along less traditional lines, the blackface banjo trio, Chuck Grey, Ed Boon and Larry Crocker, won the cup for the best men's skit in the Bonds of Friendship Show.

Al Vastyán and George Bruggeman have served as our presidents this year. Al was also vice-president of ODK this year, and George was a member of AED. Other activities on campus included track team pole vaulters Rog Landrud, Ed Baker and Zeb Burgess, and star miler Don Sharp. Initiated into Blue Key and Theta Eta Chi was Lee Cross, who was also appointed business manager of Campus. The chapter is looking forward to more years like the past one, years both of hard work and good times.

Delta Upsilon

The Denisan chapter of Delta Upsilon was organized as a colony on January 18, 1949; not quite a year later this colony was installed as a member of the long established Delta Upsilon National Fraternity, on December 3, 1949.

In the brief two years of its existence, Delta Upsilon has participated in all phases of fraternity life on Denison's campus. Tap flight men are in bananaries, varsity athletics, and the theatre. Jack Humphreys and Dave Chaney were tapped for Tau Kappa Alpha, national speech bananary. D. U. is represented in Phi Mu Alpha by Bill Osborn, and in the University Players and Theatre by Dave Judy, Dave Chaney and Bill Osborn. Bab Wilsan, Dan Hadgson and Pete Runkle are members of the literary bananary, Franca-Calleopian.

Tam Banbury wears a "D" for his job, well done, as end on the Big Red football team. Tim Adams was a member of Denison's first indoor track squad of 1951. And with the new conference rule about freshman in effect, Ralph Allured and Carl Jachens are members of the varsity track and baseball squads, respectively.

Jack Humphreys was recently tapped for Blue Key, national Junior Men's Bananary, and during this past year Dave Judy and Dave Chaney have been active in DCEP.

However, the main accomplishment of D. U. this year has been to obtain permanent living quarters. By thorough planning and pooling of resources of the members of the fraternity, faithful alumni, staunch friends, and the Mothers Club, Delta Upsilon made the jump from a group living in a college barracks to a huge fourteen-room house, well situated on the corner of Mulberry Street and West Broadway. Since the house was obtained in the middle of the first semester, the group couldn't move in until the second semester. The four days between semesters were spent remodeling, renovating and moving. By working both day and night, pledges and actives were able to remove old dirty wallpaper and to replace it with gleaming new paint. Several rooms finished in pastel shades, with the main front room partly paneled in white pine, make the house a wonderful place in which to live.

After three days of hard labor under the direction of Bear O'Dell, housemanager, the group moved in. This was only possible through the splendid assistance of the University, the National Fraternity, and the Mother's club. Even the advisors who dropped in were put to work, as will be witnessed by faculty member Bill Schwartzbaugh's noticeable hand in the "Green Room." The house is well furnished for studying and for fraternity functions. Several fine parties have been given to furnish the house with its social baptism, and Delta Upsilon is ready for its place at Denison.

American Commons Club

Softly now at close of day,
While the shades of evening fall,
Chant we praise of red and gray,
Loyal brothers, one and all.
May the peace of eventide,
On each Commoner abide,
Peace which springs from friendship true,
Commons Club of old D. U.

On Thursday, September 7, 1950, the brothers of the Denison Chapter of the American Association of Commons Clubs gathered back at the "Club upon the hill" to start the year off with a traditional serenade to the freshmen women on their first night in Granville, thus inaugurating ACC's 34th year on Denison's campus.

This year the Mother Chapter at Denison served as host to the American Association of Commons Clubs' Twenty-fifth Annual Convention in December and the occasion of the annual "Fowl Ball" found Association Chapters' representatives in Granville for a Special Convention.

Besides taking an active part in the National organization, the local chapter has continually strived to play its role as a part of Denison's fraternity system. In the field of social service the Club, in co-operation with Chi Omega sorority, has made weekly visits to the Franklin County Children's Home to help direct recreation and leadership training for the underprivileged children.

In interfraternity competition the Club participated in all intramural sports and placed fourth in track and second in tennis. At the annual Mother's Day Song Contest the Commons Club copped second place. Also, ACC ranked first in scholastic standing for the first semester.

The social season with its many informals, teas for the sororities, and formals was climaxed by the night of the ACC Casino when the house was dedicated to the "gaming" interests, followed by the girls taking the house over for the next day with a big steak roast.

For service in campus activities we would like to salute George Black who has been actively engaged in the theatre while at Denison . . . Don Dannecker, Club president for the past two years, past president of the Radio honorary, member of ODK and Blue Key, and secretary of IFC, who also served as Chairman of the Ecclasia this year . . . Donald Deer who is a member of ODK, Phi Mu Alpha, and Pi Delta Phi . . . Jim Toy who was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa key in his junior year, along with membership in ODK, Phi Mu Alpha and Pi Delta Phi . . . Chuck Briefer, Phi Mu Alpha, who has been the faithful bell ringer at Swasey Chapel . . . Bill Roach who served as president of Math Club and who wrote the under-graduate article for the Alumni magazine . . . Don Roberts, newly elected Club prexy who is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Blue Key, ODK, vice-president, Radio honorary, vice-president, and next year's IFC president . . . and William Johnson, a member of Pi Sigma Alpha, who has been elected business manager of the band.

Finally, we wish our twelve graduating seniors the very best of luck as they leave Denison for other fields to conquer.

Activities . . .

A well-balanced curriculum would not be complete without the existence of extra-curricular interest groups who focus their attention on certain phases of the academic world. These groups, which provide an opportunity for investigation on certain topics, hold frequent meetings to discuss current problems pertaining to the group's area of study. These extra-curricular activities provide an excellent opportunity for learning through constructive exchange of ideas and mutual interest.

The Denison Campus Government through its coordination and control of the Judicial Councils, Boards of Control, Student Faculty Committees, and the Women's Council attempts to provide for the welfare of both students and Faculty and to promote smooth running campus life.

This year the Association was under the leadership of Larry Crocker, and Marilyn Crosby, Co-presidents; Doree Ernst and Douglas Brooks, Co-vice-presidents; Sara Brown, Chairman of Women's Judicial Council, and Tom Reading, Chairman of Men's Judicial Council.

Under their direction a plan was implemented whereby one freshman from each social group and the independents was invited to participate in each Senate meeting thereby giving the freshmen an idea of what matters were being discussed and enacted by their Student Senate. The first two Senate meetings were devoted to the orientation of the newly elected Senate representatives so that they might understand more fully the responsibilities that lay upon their shoulders as representatives of student opinion and interests. Reports were called for from each Student-Faculty committee which evaluated the weight of student opinion and participation on these committees.

The governing body of DCGA is the Senate which is composed of one representative from each social group and the independents. All final decisions as to student affairs are made by this body.

Phi Beta Kappa

Election to Phi Beta Kappa is the most distinguished honor that can be bestowed on any junior or senior. This national honorary society, now in its thirty-ninth year at Denison selects those students each year who have been outstanding in scholarship during their college career. In addition to attainment in scholarly pursuits, election is based upon manifestations of high character and of deep interest in the life of the college. The Denison chapter officers for 1951-52 are: Dr. Maylon Hepp, president; Dr. Morton B. Strotton, vice-president; Dr. Walter T. Secor, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Willis A. Chamberlin, historian.

Phi Society

Phi Society is the freshman class honorary sponsored by Phi Beta Kappa. It elects those members of the freshman class who have earned one hundred twelve scholastic points. This organization was founded at Denison in 1926 through the efforts of Dr. Eri Shumaker, English Department, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. The aim of the society is to promote scholarship in the freshman class and set standards for attainment in the ensuing years. The advisor for the year 1950-51 was Miss Mary Kathryn Selby of the Modern Language Department.

Mortar Board

Membership in Mortar Board, National Honorary for Senior women, is based on scholarship, leadership, and service to the school and to the community. Among the purposes of the group are the recognition and encouragement of balanced collegiate programs of high scholarship and meaningful leadership. Through informal discussions the group attempts to become familiar with prevailing campus problems, and to work for their solution or alleviation with the people directly affected by the problem. National Mortar Board attempts to provide for the co-operation between societies, to promote college loyalty and to advance the spirit of service and fellowship among university women.

The officers this year were: president, Sally Brown; vice-president, Dorie Heller; Sec'y, Nancy Baldwin; Treas. Char Alber.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa, senior men's honorary, has as its purpose the informal discussion of campus problems and the direction of decisions proposed to the various campus groups. The men elected to ODK are those who have displayed qualities of leadership, scholarship, and service. As a climax to this year's work, members of ODK planned an Honors Day convocation.

Officers for this year were: president, Jack Boyer; vice-president, Al Vastyn; secretary-treasurer, Prof. Danner Mahood.

Blue Key

Blue Key, Junior Men's Honorary, has the dual purpose of rendering service to the school and encouraging leadership and scholarship. The activities of Blue Key this year consisted of planning the Dad's Day Weekend, and conducting tours of the campus for guests and visitors of the university. Membership is limited to thirty-five, and new members are tapped in the spring.

Presiding over the group this year were the following officers: Fronk Cover, president; Dave Tylor, vice-president; Jerry Cowan, secretary; Don Watkins, treasurer.

Crossed Keys

Membership in Crossed Keys, the Junior Women's Honorary, is on leadership, character, and service in campus activities.

The purpose of the organization is to encourage and promote campus activities and to render to the college any service it sees fit. This year, Crossed Keys has ushered at May Day, conducted campus tours for visitors, and worked in the Alumni Office to provide rooms for visitors on Dad's Day and Mother's Day.

The officers this year were Joan Pease, president; Susan Walters, secretary; Lucia Howarth, treasurer; and Beve Brown, social chairman.

Men's Judicial Council

One of the most active branches of the Denison Campus Government Association is Men's Judicial Council. This group is comprised of the vice-presidents of the men's social groups. The group, headed by Tom Reading, operates to enforce all men's regulations and to discuss disciplinary enforcement and judicial problems.

First row: George Bruggemon, Ralph Talbot, Tom Reading, Doug Krieger

Second row: Bob Worst, Don Watkins, Bill Jaquith

Women's Judicial Council

This branch of the Denison Campus Government Association operates as the enforcement body for all women's regulations. The group consists of a representative from each social group and a representative of the independents. It has the power to review decisions made by dormitory house councils, and serves as a court of appeals for any woman dissatisfied with a judgement rendered on a lower level.

Women's Council

Women's Council sought to fulfill its responsibility as the governing body of Denison women by keeping in contact with the attitudes of women both toward campus problems and toward problems of wider scope, and by seeking to guide these attitudes in constructive directions. It helped to plan a vocational guidance program to supplement that carried on by the Vocational Guidance Counseling Corps of the university.

Student Union

How about a cup of coffee? Or just plain socializing? The snack bar and lounge at the Union always seems to be crowded between classes—some having a late breakfast, others watching TV. The Union was moved to the first floor of Cleveland Hall this year, providing much more space and many more facilities to tempt the poor "student" to while away a few minutes each day.

Libby Ormand, Mrs. Wilsan, Jack Landis

YWCA

The theme that guided this year's YWCA work was "Y work for community action."

The relationship between activities on campus, such as the Y and other organizations, and work in the community was emphasized. This year's theme has been carried out through commissions working with the Negro community, the mental hospital, the tuberculosis sanatorium, the Girl Scouts, the nursery, and several other institutions in the community.

Student Faculty

It is the job of the Student-Faculty Council to work out any differences which may arise between student and faculty legislation. The council provides for a more smoothly running student government and it enables each group to benefit from the other's opinions on the problems as they are presented.

DCEP

DCEP is a campus program designed to relate Christian ethics to all areas of life. Between four and five hundred students participate in same phase of the program each year. Vespers, Deni-Service, and Christian Emphasis Week are a few examples of the type of work which the students do.

The DCEP cabinet is composed of chairmen of the various major committees and is a coordinating group for the entire program.

"D" Association

The "D" Association is an organization of those at Denison who have earned their letters in varsity athletics. This association promotes and stimulates school spirit and athletic interests in this university.

All members have the authority to enforce Denison traditions such as: smoking on the Quadrangle and Chapel Walk, underclassmen sitting on the Senior Bench, and failure to say "hello" to people on campus. Also, the association governs the freshman class and indoctrinates them on all Denison traditions.

Auto Court

The Auto Court was codified so that the whims and antics that sometimes come into the heads of Denison drivers are not carried to perpetuity. The maintenance of safety and the enforcement of regulations is the purpose of this group. It is composed of one representative from each fraternity, two independent men, and the Dean of Men.

Phi Mu Alpha

Phi Mu Alpha, men's national music honorary, has as its purpose the advancement of great music. To become a member, one must show a sincere interest in music and must participate in more than two musical activities. Phi Mu Alpha sponsors the annual Interfraternity Pledge Song Contest; Quartette and Glee Club Contests which are outstanding campus events.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Phi Delta Epsilon, National Journalistic Honorary, promotes good journalistic endeavors among Denison publications. Pi Delt publishes the Student-Faculty Directory, the "D" Book, and the football programs. This year Pi Delt bought a television set for the Union and has begun a scholarship program for worthy students. Students having served two years in a major post on the Campus, Denisonian, or Adyutum, are eligible for membership.

Alpha Beta chapter of Pi Delta Phi was founded at Denison University in 1949 by Dr. Walter T. Secor of the Modern Languages Department. The goals of the National French Society are: to recognize merit in the study of the French language, literature and civilization; and to expand the development of an interest and a knowledge of French culture in the United States. The officers for 1950-51 have been: president, Helen Collins; secretary, Beverly Tyler; treasurer, Janet MacMahon.

First raw: Mr. Ted Preston, Katherine Shirley, Beverly Tyler, Haven Janes, Janet Chorn

Second raw: Joyce Stoley, Sally Addams, Carol Hawkins, Edith Hortwig, Ann Haebeke, Janet Maare, Mr. Secor, Miss Selby, James Toy, Richard Banestee, Bev Fall

Third raw: Teeta Henderson, Horriet Reid, Janet MacMahon, Shirley Umphrey, Ann Jahnson

Chemical Society

The Denison Chemical Society is the oldest departmental honorary on campus. This year, as in the past, the activities of this organization included chemical discussions, movies, lectures and field trips.

The presiding officer for the year was Larry Nisbet.

Second row: Dr. Ronneberg, Betty Sturm, Liz McHutchison, Fannie McConaughy, Janet Cutter, Mr. Fetter

First row: Phyl Dye, Lucy Lauren, Joanne Messerly, Carolyn Hoyt, Marilyn Birkemeier, Marian Campbell

Sailing Club

Among the many insundy activities betiding at scenic Buckeye Lake we find that it is the home of the Denison Sailing Club. Actually the designated purpose is to instruct its members in the techniques, rules, and regulations of sailing and racing. Sailing interest and participation entitle any student to membership in the club which owns several craft adaptable for sailing.

Second row: Bob King, Dan Barringer, Harry Williams, John Chalmers, Ann Johnson, Sallie Pope, Jane McCallister, Lucia Howarth, Dave Horner

First row: Larry Crocker, Guido Panteleoni, Sig Meisse, Barb Alexander, Norma Richmond, Nancy Leith, Bob Barth, Dave Hart, Louise MacKeen

Camera Club

The regular meetings of Camera Club were highlighted by movies on photography and a portrait session, including a print display of some of the best pictures.

In October, the club took part in a field trip through the surrounding countryside which offered some outstanding opportunities for Kodachrome pictures. Another trip in January netted some excellent snow scenes, while spring plans included a trip to Yellow Springs, Ohio.

First row: Crazier Jones, Chuck Goodwin, Bob Stewart, John Trimble, Bob Porter, Phil Rees, Ann Moyers, Tom Elleman

Cosmopolitan Club

Desirous of furthering the relations between the foreign students and the rest of the student body and between the foreign students themselves, the Cosmopolitan Club has been organized to orientate and help the foreign students on campus. As part of their activity they have held special functions for the purpose of making the foreign students feel more at home.

First row: Teeta Hendersan, Bruce MacNab, Rayko Yasamuro, Esther Cervantes, Endre Moyer, Endrik Noges
 Second raw: Dr. Chosoburo Kota, Mr. John Duffy, Susan Wolters, Ethel Marita, Florida Fischer, Florence Borgmann, Penelope Truesdell, Susan Seils, Franz Uhle-Wettler, Igor Jurkevich, Robert McDoniel, Kjell Amble

The Math Club

The Math Club is an open organization for the students of Denison who have any desire at all to learn more about mathematics.

The purpose of the Club is to further interest in the study of pure mathematics, to show mathematical applications to other sciences, and to show its many applications to different aspects of everyday life.

First raw: DuWayne Peterson, Ann Kinney, Noncy Possolt, Royol Pepple, Igor Jurkevich, William Roach
 Second raw: Mary Longon, Prof. Edsan C. Rupp, Dr. Chosoburo Kota, Mr. A. Collins Ladner, Wildo Wiest
 Third raw: Ruth Hendricks, Elizabeth Withers, Gerda Mehwald, Coral Taylar, Jeanne Kirsten, Susan Miles, Marion Eschmeyer, Anne Goyman, Shirley Osborn, Don Roberts, Robert Schwobe

Alpha Epsilon Delta

Alpha Epsilon Delta was established on the Denison campus only last year. The purpose of this society is to organize students who plan to enter medicine or related fields, and also to stimulate interest in medicine on the campus. The requirements for membership include a high scholastic standing, character befitting a future doctor, and definite plans to enter medicine.

First raw: Dr. Lindsay, Jaonne Taylor, Dick Gerle, Dove Purcell, Joe Buder, John Peterson, Tany Santomoura
 Second raw: Lou Kompmeier, Liz McHutchison, Dr. Everhord, Fannie McConnoughay, Janet Cutter, Betty Sturm, Janet Farsaith, Maggie Leighton
 Third raw: Som McHutchison, Jerry Moore, Jim Shaw, Don Warren, George Bruggeman, Lorry Crocker, Jim Mason, Larry Johnson
 Fourth raw: Louis Fry, Tom Rees, Jack Humphreys, Dick Mercer, Tom McGranahan
 Fifth raw: Jock Oberhelmon, Dave Pickett, Jock Boyer, Doug McKee, Jim Kornmesser, Dr. Morgan, Mr. Fetters

University Players

University Players is open to anyone sufficiently interested in the theatre at Denison to fulfill the membership requirements; this year it reached a peak in size with a membership of fifty. The basic requirement of the group is one hundred hours of work, twenty-five of which must be in some phase of back-stage activity.

First row: David Chaney, Thomas McGranahan, Glenn Walters, Susie Walters, Miss Outland

Second row: Averill Goodrich, Carol Swisher, Lynn Olwin, Susan Self, Ursula Kraeger, Kathie Whitacre, Maryan Francis, Jackie Sovulewski, Boanie Hardman

First row: Marcia Roberts, Connie Ford, Doris Heller, Julie Cartland

Second row: John Martinson, Bud Steele, Norman Vincent, Fred Bogaert

Student Speakers Bureau

The Student Speakers Bureau is an organization of students who are prepared to go out to various off-campus groups as speakers. This prepares the students for lecturing and speaking engagements after graduation. It also fills a need of various town groups for planned programs. Presiding officer of the group this year was Don Dannecker, with R. J. Robbins as faculty advisor.

Second row: Lucy Long, Don Dannecker, Sam McKenney, Dave Choney, Barb Griffith, Myrtle Sowards

First row: Barb Young, Dick Lugar, Carol Swisher, Susan Self

Radio Broadcasting Club

The Denison Broadcasting Club, radio honorary, was established in 1948 with the purpose of co-ordinating and advancing the broadcasting activities of Denison University. Club members are active in Denison's two programs broadcast over WCLT, "The Denison Diary" and the Denison Radio Forum." Officers for the year were president, Bill Dresser, vice-president, Whit Bears, secretary, Kathie Whitacre.

First row: Kathie Whitacre, Potti Jones, Lucy Long, Ann Mayers, Carol Swisher

Second row: John McCarter, Bob McDoniels, Donn Dogonhart, Don Roberts, Bill Dresser

Third row: Whit Bears, Mr. Robbins, Chouncey Burke, Donn Dannecker

Personnel Club

The Personnel Club aids those majoring in the field by discussing the opportunities and openings in this profession, and it further helps the members by discussing any problems which deal with job opportunities in any phase of the business world. The club also invites various speakers to give programs and to discuss problems of common interest. The president this year was Dale Wilson.

Third row: Tam Motthew, George Bergquist

Second row: Wendy Burnip, Wally Martin, Helen Boyce, Bob Barth

First row: Dale Wilson, Jean Dungan, Lucio Hawarth, Jaan Harper

Women's Music Honorary

The Women's Music Honorary was organized in 1949 to give an opportunity to study and to enjoy music and to give recognition to those women students who combine high scholastic standing with outstanding interest and participation in musical activities on the Denison campus.

Third row: Wonda Thomas, Sylvia Ross, June Holcomb, Esther Cervantes, Phyl Dye, Lucy Amner, Susan Bates, Judy Bell

Row two: Betty Litchfield, Ginger Rassmon, JaAnn Taylor, Jean Lackhart

First row: Royka Yosumuro, Mary Bailey, Carol Thorpe, Joyce Faulkner, Kay Dodge

Denison Band

The Denison University Big Red Band, led by Mr. Paul C. Oxley, gave many fine performances at the football games, both in Granville and at those games played out of town. The highlights of the year were the concerts given at Homecoming, at Dad's Day, and at the all-school dinner. The colorful baton-twirling of Ed Montgomery made each performance complete.

First raw: Miller, Karr, Harvey, Amner, Heaslett, Bailey, Neal, Hardman

Second raw: Turk, Yasamura, Blackmire, Shales, Eshelman, Bewley, Reid, Gateswarth, Lackhart, Nuzum

Third raw: Williams, Englehart, Rass, Taussaint, Weber, Williams, Dabsan, Janda, Savulewski

First raw: Buder, Hazlett, Hunting, Rasar, Krieger, Van Rees, Dallas, Mullan

Second raw: Purcell, Fry, Banbury, Weber, Rasene, Basley, Sharp, MacNab

Third raw: Hess, Osbarn, Sanbarn, Dean, Lawrence, Harrisan, Slade, Webb, Harlamert

Fourth raw: Valz, Thamsan, Heiser, Thampsan, Cash, Pickett, Humphreys, McNulty, Barnhill

Women's Glee Club

Under the direction of Herman Larson, the Denison University Women's Glee Club is composed of thirty-five voices. In addition to their regular concerts throughout the college year, they went on a weekend tour in Ohio. Also on their list of activities they sang at the All-College Dinner, assisted with the May Day Program and other musical activities on campus.

Men's Glee Club

Under the direction of Karl Eschman, the Denison University Men's Glee Club completed another successful year. In addition to the concerts given in Granville and in the immediate neighborhood, the Glee Club continued its practice of making a concert tour during spring vacation. They also participated in radio broadcasts, making recordings and in other musical activities on campus.

This year, the editorial staff of the Campus magazine made an all out effort to quench the thirst of the student body for a bigger and better quarterly publication.

This dream was realized with the March issue of the magazine which was a satire of a national publication, our parody being entitled the Lift magazine.

The magazine this year was printed in lots of 1700 issues, and if it continues to be a success, we are sure that this figure will continue to increase.

The Denisonian is the wholly student operated weekly newspaper. The paper serves as the voice of the student body, factually covering all campus functions, campus news, sports events, and reporting student opinion on controversial issues.

A staff of over thirty members worked on the Denisonian this year. Jim Richards served as editor and Jane Wonders as associate editor for the first fall issues. Following their resignation, Rusty Barton and John McCarter were appointed co-editors.

Bob Veh served as business manager. Working with him were: Spike Kennedy as advertising manager and Jerry Eha as circulation manager.

Adytum

The Adytum staff of 1951 has tried to create a yearbook which will be truly representative of life at Denison. We feel that special emphasis should be placed on the beauty of Denison's campus, and, also on our school life, many parts of which are so unique to Denison.

We have not consciously built this book around a single theme. But if we are to choose one, then let us say this yearbook is entitled "Looking at Denison." In every section we have tried to show a little more what life here at Denison is actually like.

Our choice of a dedication this year was only natural. No other man has contributed so very much to Denison during this year as our Acting President Cyril F. Richards. We especially hope this book will be a lasting memory for him of a year which we hope has been as wonderful for him as it has been for us.

Bill Austin, Tim Roudebush,

We would like to thank all those who cooperated with us in the taking of the pictures for the book. Also, a word of appreciation to the many organizations and individuals who assisted us with write-ups and other information necessary to the compiling of a yearbook. In particular, we gratefully thank Bob Dorling, Dorothy Morkert, and Marilyn Stone, without whose help this book might have been another X-mas present.

This yearbook has taken much hard work and patience. We hope the result is a yearbook you will be proud to keep.

Athletics . . .

In addition to the fulfillment of the dream of constructing a new physical education building, another dream was fulfilled this year, that of the successful and efficient operation of this center.

The Bigwam has served not only to house varsity games and to make Denison athletic history, it has served as a symbol of the importance of athletics in the academic program and as a symbol of the desire for spirit and fair play in all competition.

Cheerleaders

Second row: Joan LeRoy, George Bergquist, Noncy Brelsford, Koty Meeker, Rog Owen, Marilyn Stone
First row: Dave Rounds, Shirley Osborn

The cheerleading squad has only one purpose in Denison campus life: to instill school spirit. This year they organized the pep rallies, encouraged class migrations, and led cheers at all the varsity football and basketball games. The eight cheerleaders are chosen from a highly competitive field by representatives of the Athletic Board of Control, the "D" Association, and DCGA Senate in the try-outs held every spring. Freshman cheerleaders are trained and chosen by the varsity cheerleaders at the end of the football season to enable them to practice and lead cheers at the freshman basketball games. This year co-head cheerleaders were Shirley Osborn and Dave Raunds.

Denison	40	Capital	7

This year was expected to produce another fine Denison grid squad, but due to injuries midway in the season and several other bad breaks, the Big Red finished with a four won-four lost record. As the season got underway and the team got the first few games under its belt, everything seemed to go as expected. Rolling up scores of 20-0, 26-0, and 46-0 in the first three games, the Big Red looked like they were capable of another undefeated season. The disastrous Homecoming game disproved all this. The strong but twice beaten Ohio Wesleyan team proved to be too much for the formerly highly touted Denison club. As the season moved on we saw a great change in the squad. Injury riddled and beaten in the Wesleyan game, the Big Red didn't get back into the win column until the last game of the season when they rolled over an inexperienced Capital team. During the four game losing streak, the team showed occasional sparks but the play was spotty. Drives failed to get underway, costly fumbles paved the way for enemy touchdowns, and the Denison passing attack collapsed.

Third raw: Raudebush, Pasey, N. Warren, Show, Slaad, Greene, Murray

Second raw: D. Warren, Morse, Bavington, MacNab, Deedrick, Taylor, B. Walters

First raw: Cowan, Wright, Boyer, Bourdeau, Sepessy, Reeding, Huff

Sixth raw: Livingston, Corl, McDermott, Reese, Johnston, Steelmon, Rutherford, U. Fadeaway, Eikenberry

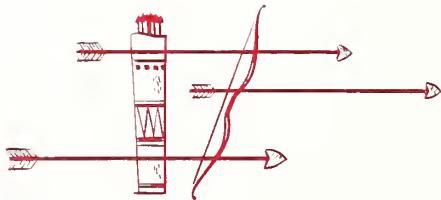

Fifth row: DeVore, Weber, Redmon, Boker, Banbury, J. Peterson, Wozinski, Miner

Fourth Row: Mojor, Alt, Romsey, Bren, Kell, Bossett, Moore, Billingsley

Despite these lapses there were many fine points in the season. The excellent running of Jack Boyer kept Denison's ground offensive intact while the defensive work of Bob Sepessy was outstanding. All in all the season was not one to be ashamed of; however, it cannot be considered one of Denison's better. With many veterans returning next year plus several fine up and coming freshmen players, Mr. Carl and Denison are looking forward to a better year.

WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON

Starting the season with a vengeance for last year's defeat, the Big Red of Denison rolled over a heavier but inexperienced Washington and Jefferson grid team by the score of 20-0 on the opponents' field at Washington, Pennsylvania.

The fine passing of Kent Taylor accounted for 98 yards and two of the three Denison tallies.

OTTERBEIN

The Big Red continued to roll in their second start of the season as they overpowered the Cardinals of Otterbein 26-0. Before a large home crowd, the Big Red gridders scared in each quarter. Jack Boyer led the attack by scoring three of the Denison touchdowns. The Big Red revealed a powerful ground attack as they piled up 397 yards.

WOOSTER

Scoring four times in the opening quarter, the Big Red from Denison spoiled Wooster's Homecoming by downing the Scots 46-0. Sparked by the passing of Tammy Miner and the running of Captain Harry Bourdeau, the Big Red looked like one of the better teams in the state. At this point the Denison grid machine was one of the few unscored on teams in the country.

OHIO WESLEYAN

Taking an unblemished record into the Ohio Wesleyan game, the Denison Big Red went down to defeat by the score 33-13. A highly spirited Wesleyan club started strong by scoring twice in the first quarter; however, the Big Red came back in the third quarter as they marched for a touchdown the first time the ball came into their possession. This brought the score to 19-13. Wesleyan immediately countered with another score and added a cinching tallie in the final quarter to spoil Denison's bid for their fourth straight victory.

MUSKINGUM

Determined to make a comeback after the humiliating defeat handed them by Ohio Wesleyan, the Denison Big Red had the score reversed on them for the second week in a row as the powerful Muskies from Muskingum rallied to a 27-7 win. Jack Boyer was the offensive standout for Denison as he reeled off 101 yards on the ground, but this was not enough to stop the Muskies as they scored in each quarter.

WITTENBERG

The Big Red was turned back for the third time as the boys from Wittenberg rallied up three touchdowns to win 20-6 in a blinding snowstorm.

OBERLIN

Unable to hold a 12 point lead, the Big Red suffered their fourth straight defeat as the Yeomen of Oberlin came back to score 19 points in the second half.

CAPITAL

In the eighth and final game of the season, the Big Red rallied over the hapless Lutherans of Capital by a score of 40-7.

Basketball

The first season on the new fieldhouse court proved to be a disastrous one for the Big Red cagers. Cooch Eikenberry found lack of experience, not lack of talent, the major problem of this year's squad, as juniors and sophomores dominated the team. Dropping the first four games to Case, Muskingum, Mt. Union and Capitol, the Big Red suddenly came to life trouncing Kenyon 79 to 67, then astounded the entire sporting world by upsetting Hovord 55 to 46.

A series of bad breaks, the loss of All-Ohio guard Kent Savage to the army, and the failure of star forward Joe Fassett to regain his shooting eye, dropped the cagers back into a slump from which they never recovered, as they managed to defeat only Wooster, Hiram, Kenyon, and Capital in their next fifteen games.

Second raw: Creager, Sherman, Wright, Mapar, Emanuelsan, Fassett, Sepessy, Crosby
First raw: Miner, Laird, Keeley, Laven, Savage, Zweier

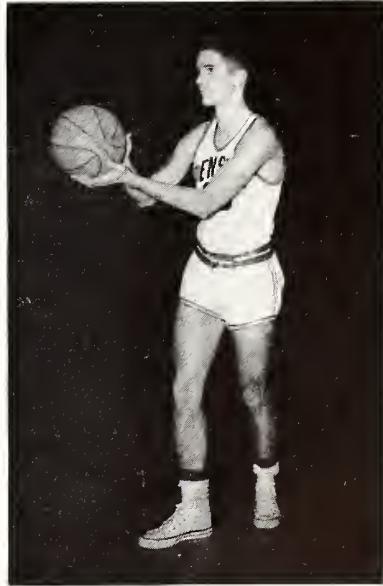

Defense specialist Joe Fassett, and sharp-shooting Dave Sherman, held down the starting forward positions, while Big Bob Sepessy, and sophomore star Bob Laird performed capably at the guard posts. At center position was much-lauded Jim Emanuelson, the 6'7" sophomore. Under the expert tutelage of Coach Eikenberry, "Ewell" developed into one of the finest centers in Ohio basketball circles. Placing eighth among the nation's rebounders, Emanuelson also broke the school scoring record by pouring 353 points through the hoop, for an average of 16.9 per game. His fine work won him a position on the Ohio-Conference first team.

The prospects for next year's team look extremely good. Bob Wright, who proved valuable at both forward and center, is the only loss. Junior Bob Loven, sophomores Bill Zweier, Bill Keeley, Jim McForlond, and Bob Major received enough experience this year to make them particularly valuable, and an outstanding frosh club will send up Don DeJong, Ken Jones, Bob Vogt, and Dick Young to further strengthen the varsity ranks.

Hampered by the loss of a balanced pitching staff, the Eikenberry-coached ball club nevertheless showed itself to be a hard-hitting, good-fielding outfit and ended the season with a very creditable .500 record. Sparked by veterans Jim Mason behind the plate, Kent Taylor on third, and Jud Hoy in left field, and newcomers Art Kleck, Carl Murray, pitchers, Dick Young, first base, Wayne Peterson, second base, Don Alt, short-stop, and Jim Edgerly and Bill Ryno in the outfield, the squad turned in many polished performances. With Jim Mason being the only one to graduate, the diamond prospects of the Big Red look exceptionally good for next year.

The purpose of the Denison Lacrosse Club is to promote interest and participation in intercollegiate lacrosse. The club was founded two years ago and has grown and prospered steadily under the guidance of its officers. Playing contests against Oberlin, Kenyon, and Ohio State, the team is gradually gaining the experience and skill necessary to produce a winning combination.

Officers for the year were: president, Dick Bonesteel; vice-president, Tom Greene; treasurer, John McCarter, and Faculty Advisor, Edward Atwood.

Taking over for "Livy," Coach Jack Carl found himself faced with the necessity of building a squad around veterans Dan Sharp and Dick Elliott. As it turned out, the youngsters proved to be particularly outstanding. Fresh Dan DeJong broke the school record as he soared 6'2½" to take first in the Ohio Conference Meet, and fresh Zeb Burgess did the same with a leap of 12'6" in the pole vault. Sophomore John Ames proved to be the most consistent point getter as he took the high hurdles in every dual meet, and capped his work with a third in both the conference and state meets. Sharp, the workhorse of the squad, proved his versatility and stamina by alternating between the mile, the two-mile, the half-mile, and also by running a leg on the relay team when he was needed.

Other capable performers were Ted Cachran and Chuck Brickman in the hurdles, Dick Elliott in the dashes, Rag Landrud in the pale vault, Gib Brown in the 440, and Jack Walling, Tod Heyman, and Dick Landrum in the mile relay.

The track team, which won more than half its scheduled meets this year, hopes to improve that record next year and will probably do so if the underclassmen continue to improve at their rapid pace.

The Big Red golfers, coached by Edson Rupp, were probably the youngest aggregate of varsity men in D. U. history, but they nevertheless came through with a fine season.

Veteran Bill Austin, playing the number one position, was one of the steadiest golfers in the conference, while sophomore Paul Van Nostran at the number two spot, frosh Bill Moore in the third position, and freshmen Chuck Peckham and Bill Whitmer alternating as number four men, more than held their own.

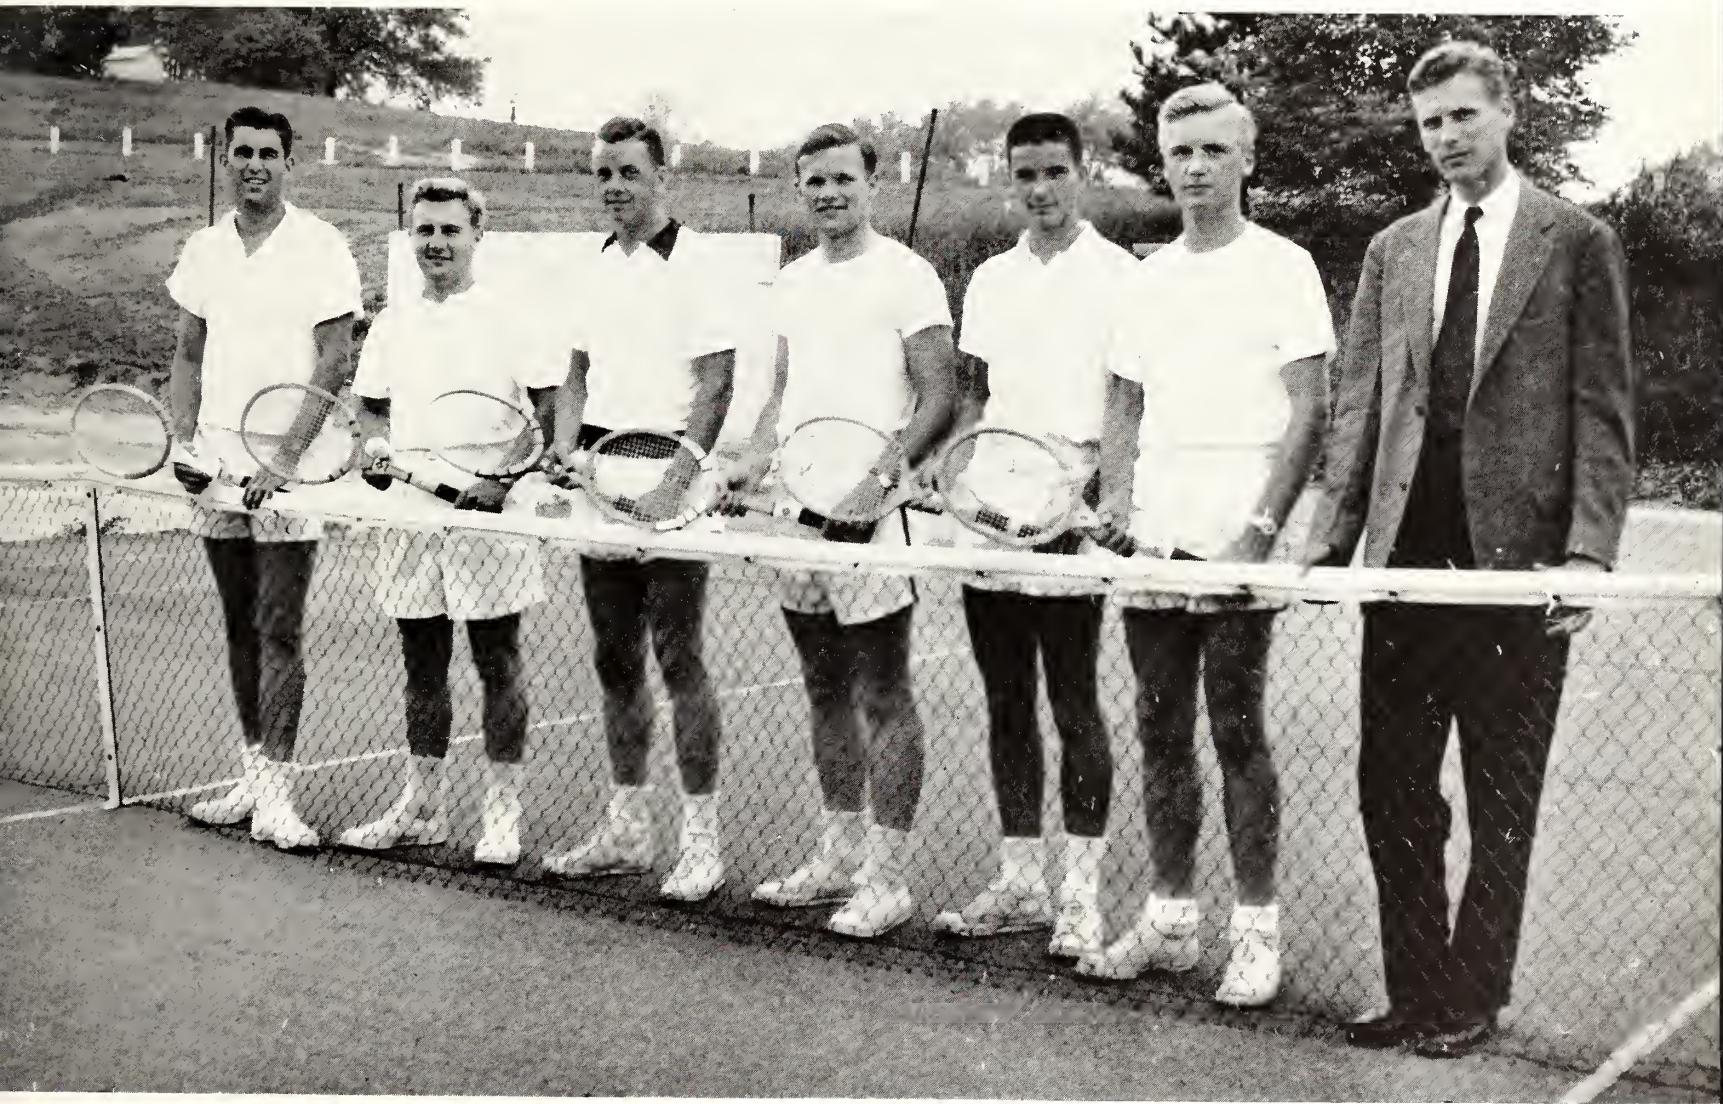

After losing only three matches during the season, the linksmen proved their true mettle by tying with Ohio Wesleyan for first place in the Ohio Conference meet at Akron. With all five men returning, 1952 looks like a good year to go after national honors again.

The D. U. netmen, under the able direction of Tris Caffin, again had an excellent season as they last only to powerful Kenyan and Oberlin. The squad was led by Jack Webb, one of the finest singles men in the state, and he was ably supported by "Blitz" Creager, Bill Rogers, Bill Keeley, and Arch Mirrieles. The high point of the season was the conference meet, where all five men advanced to at least the semi-finals of their respective divisions before losing, with Webb and Creager taking the conference doubles championship.

The loss of Webb, who served as captain this year, will place the team at a distinct disadvantage next year, as he has been an outstanding competitor for the last three years.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association provides the women students with a program of sports on an inter-class basis. Its two subsidiary organizations, Outing Club and Orchesis, contribute to the program through informal out-of-class activities and all forms of dance.

The Association is governed by the WAA Board which meets twice a month. Meetings are held once a month for the entire Association at which varied and interesting programs are given.

The sports program is divided into three seasons and provides for the following activities: archery, badminton, baseball, basketball, bowling, dance, golf, hockey, riding, swimming, tennis, volleyball. Games are played on either individual or team basis and awards are made at the banquets following each sport season.

First row: Curtis, Rowe, Bobboge, Warlow, Hortshorn, Fenwick, Cuddy
Second row: Preucil, Langan, Weinrich, Hill, Osborn, Basinger, Clark, Hartwig, Thornhill

Highlighting the basketball season this year was the Big Red Squaw Night held in the Bigwam. The event featured the top teams, seniors and freshmen, in a skillful battle from which the seniors emerged victorious.

In the fall the traditional All-Women picnic was held to honor the freshmen. The annual Alumni-Denison hockey game at Homecoming was won this year, as usual, by the alums.

The national Athletic Federation of College Women convention at the University of Michigan in April was reported highly successful by the two delegates from Denison.

Officers of WAA for the year were: Elaise Hill, president; Mary Langan, vice-president; Jewelie Babbage, secretary; Shirley Osborn, treasurer; Edie Hartwig, custodian.

SPEEDBALL

Speedball was brought back to the intramural scene this fall after a year's absence. Spirit was high and the competition keen as the speedy Phi Gam and Beta teams ran one and two; the Phi Gams winning nine straight to win the championship and the Betas lasing only ta the Phi Gams ta place a clase secand.

TENNIS

For the third year in a row the Betas annexed the intra-mural tennis crown as Blitz Creager and Frank Wheeler swept through the nine game schedule without a defeat.

"B" LEAGUE BASKETBALL

The Betas upset the dope sheets in the "B" basketball race as they finished the season with a 9-1 record losing only to a good Phi Deli team by a 27-25 score in a thrilling double over time game. A three-way tie for second place was shared between the Sigs, Phi Delts, and Kappa Sigs, who all boasted strong teams.

ALL STAR TEAM

Jay Hanna	Phi Gamma Delta
Bob Reid	Beta Theta Pi
Dick Dunbar	Sigma Alpha Epsilon
Bill Isbey	Sigma Chi
Rog Owen	Beta Theta Pi
Tim Roudebush	Beta Theta Pi
Dean Owen, Coach	Beta Theta Pi

HANDBALL

The Sigs won the handball championship this year in a closely contested race that saw many upsets. The Kappa Sigs placed second with a 7-2 record.

"A" LEAGUE BASKETBALL

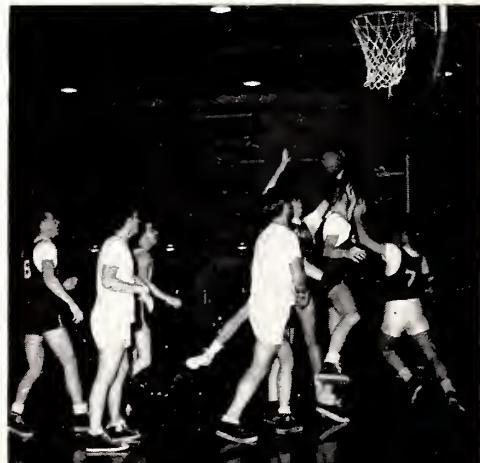

Showing an unblemished record of ten wins and no losses the Kappa Sig "A" league squad rolled over all competition to win the "A" basketball crown. Following close behind the title-holders were the Phi Delts whose only loss came at the hands of the Kappa Sigs.

ALL STAR TEAM

Jack Prather	Phi Delta Theta
John Fitton	Phi Delta Theta
Jim Moore	Kappa Sigma
Ross Little	Phi Delta Theta
Art Kleck	Kappa Sigma
Pete Guernsey, Coach	Kappa Sigma

TABLE TENNIS

Although there were over four strong teams in this field, the Kappa Sig duo managed to emerge as the champion with an unblemished record of nine wins and no losses. Close competition came from the American Commons Club team who compiled an 8-1 record.

TRACK

In winning the intramural track crown for the third consecutive year, the Betas accumulated a total of 44 points. This is one of the highest totals recorded in intramural track history. The closest competition received by the Betas came from the Kappa Sigs who gathered 29½ points during the meet.

SOFTBALL

In one of the closest softball races seen here in years the Betas, Phi Gams, and the Kappa Sigs, all finished in a tie for first place. A playoff for the title was decided upon with the Kappa Sigs drawing a first-round by. The Betas nipped the Phi Gams in the opening game of the tournament by the count of 3-2, and then went on to capture the title, by defeating the Kappa Sigs 2-1 in a bitterly rivaled game.

VOLLEYBALL

A strong Sig team rolled up an impressive 9-0 record to capture the intramural volleyball crown. The Kappa Sigs, losing only to the Sigs, placed second, thus accumulating more intramural points toward the coveted intramural cup.

GOLF

Led by two sparkling 74's by Joe Buder, who teamed with Bud Miller, the Phi Delt golf team nosed out the Beta duo of Dick Lugar and Bob Bosley by three strokes to win the intramural golf title. This makes the Phi Dels the winners of this trophy for five consecutive years.

To Denison

To Denison, we raise our song
 Fair College on the hill,
The name that sets our souls on fire
 And makes our senses thrill;
To Denison, my Denison,
 In praise our voices swell,
The scene of happy college days,
 The home we love so well.

O morning glow which gilds the east,
 O sun which shines at noon,
O stars which bloom at eventide,
 O radiant, glowing moon,
Look from thy pathless azure dome,
 Shed blessings from above,
On college halls and college walls,
 The Denison we love.

When from the fold we far shall stray,
 With souls forever young,
We'll ne'er forget our college days,
 These happy scenes among;
And when our steps have feeble grown,
 Our journey almost done,
E'en then with fleeting breath we'll praise
 Our dear old Denison.

Of Men and Machines

Machines—linotypes, printing presses, and other printing machines can accomplish feats in moments that would take men alone an unbelievably long time to do. The Lawhead Press is equipped with the latest in automatic printing and binding machines. These machines turn out economical, high quality year books, magazines, and commercial advertising. Even though machines sometimes seem to have all qualities of thinking, they lack one—Imagination. At the Lawhead Press, there are men of intelligence and imagination who design and produce superior printed material. For the best in printing—try the Lawhead Press.
